

Mrs. Carmen L. Roque

March 26, 1940 - February 17, 2015

Remembering the Life of Carmen L. Roque

~~~~~
...“Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil: for thou art with me;
thy rod and thy staff they comfort me...” Psalm 23:4

Carmen was born Tuesday, March 26, 1940, in Cidra, Puerto Rico, daughter of the late Teofilo Roque and the late Felicita Pereira Roque.

Educated in Puerto Rico, Carmen was a very family-oriented homemaker who loved to cook and listen to music.

On Tuesday, February 17, 2015, while at the Penn State Hershey Medical Center, Hershey, Pennsylvania, at the age of seventy-four, Carmen peacefully fell asleep in the Lord resting from the trials and tribulations of her earthly journey. Carmen loved the staff at the Hershey Medical Center and loved to sit with her special friends under the tree bench. In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by two sons, “Chelly” Jose L. Muler and Teofilo Roque.

Carmen leaves not to mourn her transition, but to celebrate her memory with the blessed assurance of her eternal life: five children, Eveti Muler Jones, Jose A. Roque, Juan Roque, Mayda Muler and Damon Clowe; seven grandchildren, Athena Muler, Lillie Miller, Adam Jeffries, Ryan Jeffries, Drew Roque, Michael Roque and Matthew Roque; seven great grandchildren; one sister, Angela Roque; five brothers, Angelo Roque, Fernando Roque, Orlando Roque, William Roque and Luis Roque; many nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

“ I'm so glad that Drewby and I had the chance to see "Grandma" in the hospital the night before she passed and had the chance to tell her goodbye and that we loved her. I can honestly say that she like she was at peace and I knew that she was ready to let go... and looking forward to seeing her beloved sons, Chele (spelling?) and Teddy, in Heaven. She was always a warrior, tough as nails when she needed to be (to stand up for and defend her family), and incredibly sweet, kind and completely lovable. My deepest condolences go out to the entire family. My heart is heavy and I know that your hearts are broken. But know that she is no longer suffering and is now an Angel watching over you. My love to you all.

“ I visited titi about a week or so before she passed away..she was in good spirits and was at peace...even though she was in some discomfort she would always compliment the staff. Titi was saying in her sweet voice I love Jesus I love Jesus I love Jesus..the nurse asked her what her birthday was? what her name was? She aswered, right. Then she asked her who the president was and she said,"Obama real loud." We laughed. she was definitely coherent..she continued her declaration and Song of Psalms and praising Jesus with her sweet voice I love Jesus I love Jesus I love Jesus..Titi thank you for letting me into your heart.I love you I will never forget your sweet sweet voice ringing in my ears for all eternity uttering these words. I love Jesus I love Jesus I love Jesus.....

In his Blessed name your nephew, Alvin M.
