

Ingrid Louise Weedon Hymon

July 4, 1947 - May 31, 2021

On Friday, July 4, 1947, a beautiful baby girl was born named Ingrid Louise Weedon to the late James and Edith Weedon. On Monday, May 31, 2021, Ingrid Louise Hymon transitioned to be with her Lord at seventy-three years of age.

Educated in the Harrisburg Public School System, Ingrid graduated from John Harris High School, Class of 1965. After high school, she became employed with the General State Authority as a clerk and moved on to the Department of Agriculture as a Clerk Typist 3 in the Bureau of Plant Industry. She became a member of District Council 90, American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees, President of Local 2518 and a member of The Retirees Chapter. After twenty-five years of service, Ingrid chose to take the early retirement option.

Ingrid and James, known as “Cheatie” by family and friends, were joined in matrimony on September 16, 1977, enjoying a host of nieces and nephews from their blended families. Ingrid and Cheatie were blessed to share forty-seven years together.

Following a few years of relaxation, Ingrid decided she wanted to rejoin the workforce and began working for the Giant Food Store in Kline Village and the Harrisburg School District as a lunch aide for Downey and Lincoln Elementary Schools. While at Lincoln, she was a Union Representative for Local 2063. After seven years of service and dedication, she finally retired and became a full time GRANDMOTHER and enjoyed vacationing with her mother and family.

Ingrid was a very classy lady with impeccable style. Her wardrobe was always complimented by Michael Kors, Louis Vuitton and Christian Louboutin shoes.

Ingrid’s hobbies were shopping, of course; reading James Patterson’s novels; going to the nail and hair salons; and most importantly, getting her home surrounded by planting flowers for the summer.

Ingrid was also deeply involved in the community. Being a cancer survivor of twenty-five years, she participated in the American Cancer Society Walk and the Stop the Violence Walk. Whenever needed, she always made herself available. Ingrid enjoyed being a member of Martin Luther King Baptist Church where she served as President of the Women's Ministry, temporary usher, cooking and serving food whenever the occasion arose, helping with the Youth Organization, its Friday movie day, and working with the Landscaping Committee.

Besides having full time moments with her children and grandchildren, Ingrid looked forward to spending special times with her devoted husband Cheatie. One of her favorite times, every Friday, was going to breakfast at their favorite place, the Keystone at Third and Boas Streets, and then going to the Broad Street Market meeting with friends. She also looked forward to going to Ross Department Store on Tuesdays for Senior Day.

Ingrid was an avid sports fan. Her favorite professional football team was the Philadelphia Eagles, "Fly Eagles Fly." Her favorite college basketball team was the University of Kansas, "Rock Chalk Jayhawks."

Ingrid was preceded in death by her parents, James and Edith Weedon; and her brother, Thomas H. Jones Jr. She leaves to cherish her memory: her husband, James Hymon Sr.; children, Kelly Dudley (Jonathan), Nicole Brannan, James Hymon Jr. (Stacey), Andre Mosley, all of Harrisburg, PA, and Andrea Folkes (granddaughter, raised as their daughter) of Georgia; grandchildren, Shannel, Reina, Abriha, Jovan, Marcel, Bianca, Jonae and Jasmine; great-grandchildren, Ja'Rae, Ji'syn, J'vion, Shalaya, Maurice, Mehki, Lai-Yhani, Makenzi, Marcel Jr., Mariyon, Amyiha, Rakee Jr., Jaycee, Ja'Kai, Jyleer, Talia, Talil, TaeAndre and Dreunte; sister, Diane Quartlebaum (Will) of New York; brother, James T. Weedon Jr. of Virginia Beach, VA; brother-in-law, Fred R. Quartlebaum Sr. of Arizona; sisters-in-law, Carol Hewitt of Harrisburg, Denise Brown of South Carolina, Marcia Jackson of Harrisburg, Nelda Grey of Florida; uncle, Donald S. Weedon of Harrisburg; nieces, Epuda Stubbs of North Carolina, Sonya Weedon of Virginia Beach, Ja'Lia Jones of Philadelphia, PA, and Sepfia Weedon of Harrisburg; nephews, Fred R. Quartlebaum Jr. of Kansas, Jamil Jones of Georgia; and a host of extended family and friends.

An amazing life, Ingrid lived to the fullest!

“ I have so many memories of Ingrid that go all the way back to our high school days. I have enjoyed our communications via Facebook these past few years. It was a joy to see Ingrid looking classy all dressed up but I was most happy to see her so engaged with her family. She was the ultimate Mother and grandmother always proudly sharing their accomplishments.
I pray for God's comfort and grace to the Weedon/Hymon family and that your lovely memories of Ingrid sustain you.

“ To the Weeden, Hymon family
Sincerest condolences and prayers.
Ingrid was a diamond in the ruff, she was always smiling and always had a kind word to say. I will miss seeing my friend around town.
Ingrid was the person who came to my desk at the Dept of Agriculture and had me sign that green card to become a proud AFSCME member, for that I am forever grateful.
I will cherish all the times we chatted up and you telling Bob that he had a great women.
Take your bow, your work here is done.
Rest in paradise my friend. #gonebutneverforgotten.

“ My condolences...Mr.Hymon works with me & I was blessed to have met Mrs.Hymon a few times at company Christmas Parties. She was always dressed to impress as was Mr.Hymon. She had a great soul, her smile was contagious. My favorite memory is how happy & in love Mr. & Mrs.Hymon looked when they hit the dance floor. It made my heart smile. I will keep the family & friends in my prayers. Fly high Mrs.Hymon.

“ CHEATIE, CAROL FAMILY & FRIENDS

Prayers and Condolences are with you. INGRID Loved the LORD. When the LORD called Ingrid by name she took his hand and received her WINGS and she is now resting peacefully. She smiled all the time through her journey which I'm sure was not always easy. Ingrid loved her family and she had a special way with all of her GRANDS.

The Bible tells us TO EVERY THING THERE IS A SEASON and a time to every purpose under the heaven. THANK YOU GOD for INGRID's season.

“ Mr. Cheatie & Family,

It was with great sadness that we learned of Ms. Ingrid's passing. Our sincere sympathies to you and your family. May your many memories of your beloved help to sustain you at this most difficult time. We will certainly miss Ms. Ingrid's golden smile and the "nuggets" of wisdom that we were so blessed to receive from our "block mother". The village will never be the same! Ms. Ingrid leaves behind a beautiful legacy and wonderful family, and we know you will all be a great source of comfort and support to one another. Keeping the family in our thoughts and prayers. May the love of God enfold you during this difficult time!

“ I grew up with Ingrid in the William Howard Projects. We graduated. June 15, 1965 from John Harris High School, Pioneers.

Ingrid had a wonderful laugh and was a loyal friend. She never met a stranger. It is with sorrow that we will never speak with or hug Ingrid again. However, we should turn our mourning into joy because the Word of God clearly tells us, "To be absent from the body, is to be present with the Lord."

As a child of God all of Heaven and the Angels rejoiced when Ingrid entered into heaven. Grieve not for my Sister in the Lord. She is resting peacefully in the arms of the Lord.

Peace ANF Blessings to the Weedon/Hymon family

“ To Cheete and the family, I am blessed to have been a friend to Ingrid. Her smile and words of encouragement never allowed for a sad moment. I thank God that he allowed us to share time on this earth together. Ingrid, me and Betty Jane shared some good times. I believe it is well with her soul. God has promised that we will see her again. May God remove the sting of death from your hearts and allow only you loving memories to remain. I send you much love and continued blessings.
