~~~~~

Mary Ellen Swanson, daughter of the late Celester Greene and the late Alfred Scales Jr., was born Saturday, January 12, 1957, in Harrisburg, Pennsylvania.

“Sis,” as she was affectionately known by family and friends, was educated in the Harrisburg School District. She accepted the Lord Jesus Christ as her personal Savior and was presently a member of Imani African Christian Church under the leadership of Rev. Dr. Nathaniel J. Gadsden which afforded her the opportunity to appreciate her African history and cultural heritage.

Mary’s employment history included fifteen years of service at the West Shore Rehabilitation Center and later with Capital Area Transit before taking early retirement.

Her life passions were spending time with her family, especially her grandchildren who were the greatest jewels that God placed in her crown, as well as cooking, traveling, sewing, African Dance and working with the Daughters of ANKH which allowed her to mentor young women.

Mary peacefully transitioned into eternal life on Thursday, July 17, 2014, while at her Harrisburg home surrounded by her loving family. In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by one nephew, Hawson K. Greene Jr., and one niece, Sharika Greene.

Mary leaves to lovingly honor her legacy her devoted husband of forty-three years, Edward T. Swanson; her five children, Lateta Thompson (Keith), Amechre Greene (Chonita), Nadji Greene (Shelley), Jarelle Greene and Belinda Terry, all of Harrisburg; three sisters, Helena Wilson of Jamaica, NY, Jacqueline Prather and Edna Ann Greene, both of Harrisburg; four brothers, Larry Greene (Sara), Odell Greene (Sonia), all of Harrisburg, Barry Lawton of Baltimore, MD, and Michael Lawton of Hawaii. Her memory will also be cherished by her twelve grandchildren, four great grandchildren and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
