

Mrs. Adelle R. Mason

December 3, 1921 - October 19, 2012

Adelle R. Mason was the first child born to the late Mrs. Mattie Richardson Wright and the late Mr. James B. Richardson, Sr., in Sumter, South Carolina.

The family moved to Steelton, Pennsylvania, where Adelle graduated from Steelton High School. After graduation, Adelle began her federal government career in Washington, DC. She moved back to Pennsylvania and continued her government career working for Mechanicsburg Naval Supply Depot until her retirement in 1979.

On January 20, 1946, Adelle joined in holy matrimony to Thomas L. Mason, Jr., who preceded her in death. She enjoyed cooking, traveling and took great pride in her home. She adored her two daughters and her main concerns were the happiness and well-being of her husband and daughters.

Adelle joined in Christian fellowship with The First Baptist Church of Steelton under the pastorate of the late Rev. Oliver P. Goodwin. She faithfully attended The First Baptist Church until illness required her to relocate to Paoli, Pennsylvania. She participated in Tuesday Noon Day Prayer Service and was a member of the Senior Citizens Guild. Adelle was also a member of Harrisburg Frontiers International Auxiliary and the Girls Night Out (GNO) Club.

On Friday, October 19, 2012, while at Neighborhood Health Agencies in West Chester, Pennsylvania, Adelle passed from this earthly life into eternal life. She leaves behind to celebrate her life, her two devoted daughters, Yvette D. Mason from Bala Cynwyd, Pennsylvania, Kim Mason Pinckney; son-in-law, Stephan M. Pinckney from Bowie, Maryland; other relatives and friends.
