

Alfonso Z. Penn Jr.

December 25, 2020

Alfonso Z. Penn Jr. was born Monday, February 16, 1953, in Harrisburg, PA, the eldest of four children of Alfonso Z. Penn and Alice Chambers Penn.

Alfonso received his formal education in the Harrisburg School System and was a proud graduate of the last class of the John Harris Pioneers, Class of 1971. He went on to serve in the United States Army and worked as a linesman for Pennsylvania Power & Light Company retiring as a supervisor after thirty-seven years of service.

Alfonso was an avid sports fanatic; he loved watching and cheering for his favorite teams, the Villanova Wildcats and Philadelphia Eagles. He was well known as an umpire for the North East Baseball League and other youth baseball leagues throughout his city.

On September 28, 1974, he married his beloved wife, Frances D. Brown. Their union brought about a son, Zeffy Alfonso Penn III; and a grandson, Zeffy Alfonso Hutchison-Penn IV. Together they would become a solid foundation for which an unwavering faith and the love of family were built. If you knew him, you knew there was nothing more important to him than family. He was a gentle giant with so much love to share. If there was a family gathering, he made sure you knew you were expected to be present, especially Christmas. His corny jokes and laughter would fill the room. What he began as another way for the family to gather, bowling on New Year's Eve, became an annual family tradition that continued for fifteen years straight. He never missed a year; he was present even when he was no longer able to bowl.

On Friday, December 25, 2020, on the day of Birth of his Lord and Savior, on his favorite holiday, Christmas, he accepted his personal invitation to an eternal celebration and transitioned into eternal rest. He was predeceased by his parents, Alfonso Sr. and Alice Chambers Penn; and his father- and mother-in-law, Harold and Mary (Gonzales) Brown. He is survived by his loving, devoted wife, Frances D. (Brown) Penn; son, Zeffy A. Penn III; grandson, Zeffy A. Hutchison-Penn IV; brother, Nathaniel E. Penn; sisters, Lavetta D. Penn and Lori Ann (Penn) Simpson; brother- in-law, Harold Brown Jr.; sisters-in-law, Chloe Appleberry, Patricia Heyward (Elijah), and Carole Proctor (Lacotis); a host of nieces, nephews, great-nieces, great- nephews, a great-great-niece, an uncle, an aunt, cousins, family and friends.

“ Sister Fran, and family, we are praying for you and your family in this hour of mourning. God and time will heal your sorrow, words will not express the hurt of losing a loved one, but God has taken him to his heavenly home for his purpose now. Love to the family from your sister Carole and brother-in-law Lacottis Proctor.

“ Heartfelt condolences to Al's family and friends. I worked with Al and he had a very positive influence on me in many ways. One thing that I will always remember, in the "Mobile Work Force" days, I was working out of town and my wife was expecting a baby. For me to be close to home and be with my wife during the birth of my son, someone had to take my place. Al stepped up and did that for me. Praying for peace and comfort for you at this time of loss and sadness.
