

Mrs. Almeda Beatrice Morton Lauderdale

March 25, 1952 - December 26, 2016

A Time To Be Born

Almeda Beatrice (Morton) Lauderdale, age 64, was born on March 25, 1952, in Brooklyn, New York.

A Time To Learn

“Meda” received her formal education at John Harris High School in Harrisburg, PA, graduating in 1970. She thereafter attended Harrisburg Area Community College.

A Time To Love

She married the love of her life, Anthony “Tony” Lauderdale on January 3, 1990, and was a loving and devoted wife.

A Time To Work

She was employed by the Sheraton Harrisburg Hershey Hotel in Harrisburg, PA, for twenty-plus years. She retired from the Holiday Inn in Grantville, PA, in 2014.

A Time to Laugh

Meda was affectionately known as “Meeter” to her siblings and “Mimi” by her nieces and nephews. She was an avid collector of African American Artifacts. She was a renowned shopper and knew every sale item throughout the area and beyond. She loved watching CNN. Her passion was buying and selling on EBay. Her first love though was her family whom she loved unconditionally. She enjoyed following everyone on Facebook. We called her “The Facebook Stalker.” If she didn’t see a recent post from someone, she would say, “I think they Befriended me” instead of Unfriended me (lol). She was devoted to her mother and Auntie Aileen Bullock.

A Time To Die

On Monday, December 26, 2016, Meda transitioned from her earthly life into her eternal life.

A Time To Mourn

Meda was preceded in death by her parents, Margaret McPherson and Clayton McPherson; mother-in-law, Irene McGee of Chicago, IL; brother, Jabbar Khabir “Michael Morton;” devoted uncle and aunt, Charles “Uncle Ernie” and Aileen “Auntie” Bullock.

Meda leaves to celebrate her life and cherish precious memories her husband, Anthony Lauderdale of Harrisburg, PA; stepson, Anthony Lauderdale Jr.; siblings, Elaine McPherson of Harrisburg, Dolores “Dee” Coleman (Dennis) of Harrisburg, Clayton McPherson Jr. (Rhoda) of Columbia, SC, Aileen “Candy” Baltimore (Charles) of Columbia, SC, and Taalib Ali “Charles McPherson” of Atlanta, GA; aunts, Fannie Herbert of New Cumberland, PA, Alberta McCauley of Chicago, IL; devoted sister-in-law, Brenda Lauderdale of Hampton, VA; nieces, nephews and cousins.
