

Amari O`Nell McFadden

January 24, 2005 - December 20, 2023

Amari McFadden, a beloved son, brother, grandson, nephew, cousin and friend unexpectedly and tragically passed from this life on Wednesday, December 20, 2023, at the age of eighteen.

Amari is survived by his mother, Marilyn McFadden; his brother, Isa Paschall; his sister, Kyra McFadden; his grandparents, Raymond and Freddie McFadden; his aunts, Lydia Thomas (Scott) and Tiffany McFadden; his cousin, Oceana Porter; his great-aunt, Roseann Jefferson; and many more family members and friends.

Amari lived much of his life in Harrisburg, PA, and Carlisle, PA. From the time he was a small child, Amari had an infectious smile with a sense of humor to match and a heart-of-gold. As quiet as he liked to keep it, Amari was very intelligent. While in school, he received high, above average scores on numerous standardized tests. He loved puzzles, problem-solving and anything that would challenge his mind because he became bored easily. Amari was full of energy and loved making people smile and laugh. He knew how to connect with people on a personal level; even strangers were not strangers for long in Amari's presence.

Amari was a passionate and thoughtful person. He will be dearly missed by all who knew and loved him.

Amari... I still have your text from thanksgiving 2023 when you asked for my Mac and cheese recipe. I laugh at how you're the only person I ever gave it to. This Thanksgiving I celebrated you in a different way. I know you know what's going on down here. I want you to know that I will be there every single step of the way. Until the very end!! I love you so very much. I miss you and think about you so much. I'm still so hurt that you aren't here with us. Watch over Zay man, he's struggling without you! I'll forever remember you!! My triplet ❤️ Rest in peace.

“ It breaks my heart that your time on this Earth was tragically taken at such a young age. You were the cutest little boy who loved to talk and laugh. My funniest memory of you was when we were talking about how good Isa was at basketball and you said you was good also but not as good as your brother because of the white in you. It was so precious the way you said it. My latest memory of you was about a year ago when you was working in Walmart and approached me and hugged me. I could not believe how tall you had gotten. It made me feel good how you greeted me and I thought to myself what a sweet and handsome young man you had become. Good people are never forgotten. I know you are resting Peacefully in the arms of Jesus and will be missed by all who knew you. Love, Miss Cindy

“ My dear nephew, it breaks my heart that you are gone and I never had the opportunity of truly getting to know you as a person or nephew. I had the pleasure of meeting you a few time when you were a kid and one time when you were 15 years old. Living in Florida the last 9 years prevented me from getting to know you as well. I do know I adored you the first time I met you. Your curly long hair, those big brown eyes and your amazing smile and then again years later when you were 15 years old. You had soooo much energy and had witt for days and you were quite the jokester!! I'm glad I got to see that side of you when you were living with your Dad. You were taken from us too soon. I love you Amari McFadden-Sowers, love your Uncle Ryan Castaneira

“ My sweet Mari, I have so many memories of you. The most recent that will stay with me forever ever is listening to you laughing on the phone with Vic, then saying how much you love him. I’m definitely going to miss your calls and text messages checking in. My heart is broken. I will continue to keep your family and friends in my prayers. Love ya’ LaLa
