“ My dad was one of a kind. What will I do now I love you so much you knew that for sure when I see you we would all ways go at it telling jokes now who will I carry on with I thank God for you . We asked you was you all right every time we called you you all ways say I'm ok if you would of let us know you were sick we all would of been there with you. But it was not meant to be but you can rest asure I will keep you close in my heart. Right now I'm hurting but with prayer and faith that one day I will see you again. Love your DT Barbara asemota and Vincent love you Pop r.i.s.p good speed

“ On behalf of my mother, Thelma, and my aunt Bertie Mae, we'd like to extend our condolences to the family. Lee McClain. as I'd always heard him called, was a security officer at the Jackson-Lick Apartments and always reminded me of my grandfather - tall, with sharp features. He was also a stylish dresser! Rest well Mr. McClain.
