The Obituary

Elder Annet White-Green

“I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith.”
II Timothy 4:7

Elder Annet White-Green, daughter of the late William Suber Sr. and the late Lottie Suber, was born Thursday, June 9, 1938, in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

She attended the public schools of Philadelphia and, thereafter, earned her Master’s in Theology at the North Carolina College of Theology. She also studied at Equipping the Saints School of Ministry and Columbia Institute of Business in Philadelphia.

Elder Green was united in Christian fellowship with Grace and Mercy Church and Ministries serving diligently as an Elder, Director of Saturday Sunday School, Director of the Usher Ministry, Director of Volunteers and wherever she could share God’s Word through ministry.

She retired from the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, Department of Public Welfare as a Social Worker Supervisor. Elder Green was a generous lady with love and true concern for others. As evidenced by her membership with the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP), she was committed to fairness and justice for all. She, especially, enjoyed her work in the church, reading, traveling, crocheting and shopping.

On Wednesday, June 20, 2012, in the peace and love of her home in Middletown, Pennsylvania, Elder Green completed her earthly journey exchanging mortality for immortality and passing from the labors of this life into her reward of everlasting life. Predeceased by one daughter, Michelle Jackson, she leaves to emulate her love, faith and total trust in God: her husband, George W. Green of Middletown; two sons, Rudolph T. Harrison of Florence, S.C., and Kevin M. Harrison of Middletown. Her legacy will also be honored and cherished by her seven grandchildren, Fashia Harrison of Delanco, NJ, Tishante Jackson of Laurel Lakes, NJ, Rakeisha Harrison of Elkins Park, PA, Michelle Jackson of Burlington, NJ, Sidra Harrison of Philadelphia, Tiffany Jackson of Lawrenceville, NJ, and Kevin A. Harrison of Upper Darby, PA; her three great-grandchildren, Kayla Johnson of Delanco, Sinia Harrison of Philadelphia, and Jasmine Johnson of Delanco; other family members as well as her church family.

Through It All, We Praise God! The Family
