~~~~~

Annie Waple Mitchell was born June 13, 1927, in La Boca, Canal Zone, to Frederick Alfred Gaskin and Muriel Georgina Hinds Gaskin. She completed the then required eight years of study at the La Boca Occupation School.

She was married June 28, 1943, to Mateo Mitchell. Together they raised six children of their own and two adopted. She was always busy at her favorite hobbies, sewing and baking. These talents were eagerly shared with anyone around her; but, especially, to those who were in most need.

She accepted the Lord Jesus as her Savior during her teen years and seriously took the call of the great commission. She ministered unselfishly to the poor and needy and served faithfully as a licensed missionary in the Church of God in Christ in Panama.

Annie moved to the United States in 1980 and resided in Jersey City, NJ, Spring Hill, FL, and most recently in Carlisle, PA. She was warmly greeted and received with the love of Christ at Bibleway Hibner Memorial Church of God in Christ where she served on the Mother's Board, taught Sunday School and attended Noonday Prayer until the time of her departure.

On Friday, June 21, 2013, while at the Carlisle Regional Medical Center, God in His Infinite Wisdom and Divine Love, called her into eternal life. She was predeceased by her parents and her husband, Elder Mateo Mitchell Sr. She leaves to celebrate her life three daughters, Wilhelmina Carter of Jersey City, NJ, Anna M. Haywood of Berkeley Heights, NJ, and Donna Glee of Waldorf, MD; two sons, Marcello Mitchell of Carlisle, and Mauricio Mitchell of Jersey City; nineteen grandchildren, seventeen great grandchildren; other family members and friends.

Giving God All Glory, Honor and Praise!
