

Anthony Bernard Belcher

May 29, 1954 - July 2, 2024

Anthony Bernard Belcher, known to his loved ones as “Tony” or “KBO,” was born on May 29, 1954, in Harrisburg, PA. He recently passed away on July 2, 2024, in his hometown.

Anthony was a vibrant and stubborn individual who had a larger-than-life personality. He loved nothing more than spending time with his family, and his proudest accomplishment was being a great dad and a reliable person. Anthony's impact on the lives of others was undeniable, as he left an everlasting impression on everyone he came across.

In his free time, Anthony enjoyed various hobbies such as wrestling, bowling, knife-throwing, partying and dancing. He had a taste for Italian and meatball subs, green beans, Sheena's Spaghetti, potato salad, kidneys and deviled eggs.

His favorite bands and musical artists included Michael Jackson, Ohio Players, Funkadelic, Commodores, Earth, Wind & Fire and Young Buck's "Shorty Wanna Ride with Me."

Anthony had a love for trains, fashion, hats, sunglasses, building things, talking to his favorite cousin Eugene and his late best friend Shelton and going to the zoo with his family. He enjoyed watching cowboy movies, “Sanford and Son,” “The Jeffersons,” “Heat of the Night,” “Andy Griffith,” “Perry Mason” and “Alfred Hitchcock.” Football was his favorite sport, and he had a fondness for the quotes, “I know that,” “that man's at the door,” “I never promised you a rose garden” and his famous self-empowering saying, “she-mocka-shia!” Professionally, Anthony was a craftsman and dabbled in wrestling in his earlier years.

Anthony will join in death his mother, Ethelene Belcher Britton; his stepfather, Edison Britton; his siblings, Rosalee and Roosevelt; and his nephew Travis.

Anthony is survived by Dorathea Goodwyn--Anthony and Dorathea were together for 45 plus years; three daughters, Candice Smith, Sheena Williams and Deona Belcher; goddaughter, Lisa Perez; brother, Robert Belcher and his wife Georgianna Belcher; and his sisters, Linda Turner and Arlene Selvey and her husband Jerry Selvey. He will also live on through his siblings-in-law, Juanita, Sylvia, Angel and Sylvester Williams.

Anthony also leaves with love his grandchildren, Julien, Jaylen, Tarin, Kantrayle, Amiri, Ayonis; his great-grandchild, Jeremiah; his nieces, Cecelia, Anna, Brittainy, Nicole, Jerrica, Renita and Keisha; his nephews, Maurice, Marcus and Martise; along with numerous other relatives.

Anthony impacted his community by helping fund Golden Touch Essentials and NEMT businesses. He also believed in God and liked to explore his beliefs through music and acts of service.

Anthony Bernard Belcher will be remembered as the life-of-the-party, a reliable individual and a great dad. He will be deeply missed by his family, friends and all those whose lives he touched.

“ ABK is a nickname he name himself when we were teenagers. My memories of my cousin are numerous, as the majority of my Belchers cousin, grew up together. Our favorite place to be was at our grandmother's house. Cecilia Belcher Pearson. And we were there everyday as kids & as well as adults. We all were inseparable, I loved my cousin. Our favorite pastime was laughing. We would Crack up over anything, & we were very close, & always ended up saying "I love you" at the end of any conversation or departure. Rest in heaven Ant, I'm jealous because he's now with the best of our family. And I will always miss him
