“ Paula, I remember when I met Antwain on his first day of Fingerprint Class at State Police. It was wonderful to meet such a respectful pleasant young man. It was even greater to know he was the son of someone I knew. You raised a beautiful nice, respectful and intelligent young man. I can only imagine how much you already miss him. My heart breaks for you. I pray that the Peace of God surrounds you and the Love and the memories of your Antwain will keep you until you meet again.
Prayers & Sympathy,

“ Walking pass him at work saying hello. I would would always ask him how's his mother doing. He was such a nice young man. So sorry this happened to him. It's hard for me to go by his deck and know he's not coming back 🥹🥹🥹. To his family and friends God be with them at this time in need.

“ Antwain, a delightful handsome young man with a beautiful soul, a loving heart and personality. He will surely be missed by all who knew him and loved him. My heart is deeply saddened by his death and I do believe that our loss is heaven's gain. Paula I can only imagine what your heart must feel. I am so very sorry. Our lives are predestined by God and He makes no mistakes. He takes the best into His Kingdom. God is a very present help in the time of storm. He will see you through this storm, and be with you through the days to come; trust in Him, call on Him, He's Listen!
Family you have my deepest sympathy love and prayers, Shirley Debnam and Family 🙏❤️

Antwain was one of the most peaceful people I have ever met. He will be missed by every member of Pi Lambda Phi. Our motto: It's not four years but a life time.

Ant could make a friend anywhere and with anyone he had an old soul and a genuine heart. He’s a star amongst us now and I know I’ll be looking up to them much more now that I know he’s up there.... Gone Too Soon.
