

Ms. April D. L. Jacobs

May 2, 1977 - August 30, 2014

~~~~~

We say not in grief, "She has gone."

But, we live in thankfulness for the blessing of sharing her journey.

~~~~~

April D. L. Jacobs, daughter of Cheryl Phillips Jacobs and William D. Jacobs, was born Monday, May 2, 1977, in Harrisburg, Pennsylvania.

Educated in the Steelton School District, April graduated from Steelton-Highspire High School, Class of 1995. With a desire to pursue higher education and career preparation, April matriculated to Lincoln University and graduated from Shippensburg University. April was employed by DST Health Solutions, and as a confession of her faith, she attended Beulah Baptist Church.

Sweet, kind, caring, pleasant, April was a friend-to-all greeting you with her beautiful smile and endearing, "Hey Girl." Very savvy with computers, April loved social networking through Facebook. The day before her passing she shared on Facebook how happy she was. Shopping, traveling and attending Jay-Z Concerts with her daughter were among those things she truly enjoyed. However, foremost, she loved her family, planning family meals with her mother and planning family holiday get-togethers, especially Easter and Thanksgiving. She would enthusiastically shop for the food, cook and provide transportation to her home. Most recently, she assisted in planning the July, 2014, Wright Family Reunion.

April, being her generous self, was an organ donor. April loved and was devoted to her grandmother, Jane E. Phillips, affectionately and appropriately called, "My NANA Baby." April would visit weekly with her and stayed for hours talking. April was well versed in the Chinese Language which was a required course during her college years and very helpful when going to restaurants. On Saturday, August 30, 2014, at thirty-seven years of age, April suddenly and unexpectedly made her transition into eternal life resting Safe in His Arms. Sharing the grief of her passing while forever cherishing her memory in mind and in heart are her mother, Cheryl Phillips Jacobs; father, William D. Jacobs; husband, Bryan Davis; her four beautiful children, Avery, Blake, Boston and Cyé; siblings, Nichelle Tweedy Phillips, Michael Jacobs, Kenneth Jacobs, Janice Jacobs, Donna D. Jacobs Haskins, Leah Jackson and William Rogers Jacobs; her maternal grandmother, Jane E. Wright Phillips; niece, Janel Taylor; nephew, Kevin Taylor; aunt, Denise Phillips Drayton; uncle, Anthony Phillips, God-son, Christian Laing; cousins, other relatives and friends.

Submitted With Our Everlasting Love, The Family

April's life will be celebrated at 11 a.m., Saturday, September 6th, at The First Baptist Church of Steelton, 1850 S. 19th Street, Harrisburg, with viewing from 9 to 11 a.m.