The Obituary

Barbara Jean Dodd Evans

“To everything there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven;

A time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant,

And a time to pluck up that which is planted;

A time to kill, and a time to heal; a time to break down,

And a time to build up;

A time to weep, and a time to laugh;

A time to mourn, and a time to dance...”

Ecclesiastes 3:1-4

Barbara Jean Dodd Evans, daughter of the late George Dodd and the late Eva Mae Penn Ingram, was born Saturday, October 29, 1943, In Steelton, Pennsylvania.

Barbara received her formal education in the Steelton School District. She married the late Frank Elwood Evans II and was a devoted homemaker to her husband and four children, Yvette, Frank, Alisa and Theresa. She loved to cook, play cards and bingo and was formerly affiliated with the Steelton and Harrisburg Order of Elks.

On Saturday, June 20, 2015, after a lengthy illness, God, in His Infinite Wisdom and Divine Love, called Barbara from an earthly journey of labor into her reward of eternal life. In addition to her parents and her husband, Barbara was also preceded in death by two of her children, Yvette and Theresa Evans; and two brothers, Marshall and Robert "Bobby" Dodd.

She leaves not to mourn her passing, but to celebrate her life: one son, Frank E. Evans III; one daughter, Alisa Evans; four sisters, Rebecca Brooks, Myrtice Davenport, Wanda Jackson, Brenda Turner; two brothers, Charles Dodd and Conway Dodd; thirteen grandchildren, seventeen great grandchildren, other relatives and friends.

We did not lose the one we loved; she only left before us; where there is everlasting life, where sorrow is no more. There the soul will always live and peace is everywhere.

We did not lose our beloved mother, grandmother, sister, aunt and friend,
Mrs. Barbara Jean Dodd Evans
God Took Her In His Care.

Lovingly Submitted, The Family

Her life will be celebrated at 11 a.m., Tuesday, June 30th, at Wallace Funeral Directors with viewing 10 to 11 a.m.
