

Barbara Juanita Slaughter

March 7, 1943 - December 5, 2024

Barbara J. Slaughter, daughter of the late Frank Evans Sr. and the late Sarah (Hinton) Evans, was born Sunday, March 7, 1943, in Carlisle, Pennsylvania.

Barbara was a graduate of the former William Penn High School and was employed by Triad, both in Harrisburg, PA.

Leisurely, Barbara enjoyed playing deuces and other card games for money; painting with her great-granddaughter; and watching television, the “Steve Wilkos Show” and “Karamo.” Most notably, she will be remembered for her loving, caring, and kind personality, being silly, fun and spending time with her grandchildren. She loved her family and would do anything for them.

While at her home in Steelton, PA, on Thursday, December 5, 2024, at the age of eighty-one years, Barbara J. Slaughter transitioned from time to eternity joining her parents; her siblings, Frank (Derb) Evans Jr., Robert (Fatball) Evans, Alonzo “Lonnie” Evans, James “Preamo” Evans Sr., Helena “Ningal” Evans-Turner, Mercedes “Mert” Evans-Thomas, William “Perk” Evans; and grandsons, Charles “Chady” Davenport and Darrell Evans Jr.

Barbara leaves to celebrate her life and cherish precious memories, daughters, Mia Slaughter, Deena Farrell and Yvette Evans, both of Harrisburg, PA; sons, Lawrence Evans, Keith Evans and Darrell Evans, all of Harrisburg, and Stephon Bookhart of Mississippi; thirty-three grandchildren, forty great-grandchildren, one great-great-grandchild; and a host of nieces, nephews, other family members and friends.

“ So sorry to hear of Cousin Barb's transition. I used to go visit her with Aunt Betty Petty and my mother Henrietta Palmer when I was a Young girl. Sometimes Uncle Frank would come by. We always felt the warmth of feeling welcomed in her home. I can still remember her lovely smile. May you all find Comfort in God and in your Fond memories of Cousin Barb. We would keep in touch on Facebook. Rest in Peace Beautiful Lady.
