The Obituary

Ms. Bernadette M. Edwards

How do I say goodbye to yesterday and what we had?

The good times that made us laugh; I waived the bad.

I'll take with me the memories to be my sunshine in the rain.

It's so hard to say goodbye to yesterday.

Bernadette M. Edwards, daughter of Snap Pole and the late Emma Lee Edwards, was born Sunday, March 27, 1966, in Brooklyn, New York.

Bernadette made Pennsylvania her home for over thirty years. She graduated from Harrisburg High, John Harris Campus, Class of 1985, and was a member of N.J.R.O.T.C. She was employed by Highmark Blue Shield for over twenty-five years. Among her life pleasures were time spent with family, friends and QVC shopping. A more loyal and devoted sister or friend could not be found.

Bernadette was predeceased by her mother, Emma Lee Edwards; and her brother, Jeremiah R. Edwards. In Harrisburg, on Tuesday, August 23, 2011, God in His Infinite Wisdom and Divine Love, called Bernadette into Life Eternal, free of all pain and suffering.

She leaves to cherish many good memories her father; Snap Pole; one brother, Johnny M. Brown Jr.; her fiancé, Michael Ray, all of Harrisburg; three aunts, Margaret Williams and Harriet Johnson, both of Orange Virginia, and Marie Bowles of Woodbridge, Virginia; uncles, cousins, other relatives, wonderful and devoted friends.

Although we will miss our beloved Bernadette, she will never be forgotten!

“ I am so sorry for your loss. May "the God of all comfort" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4) comfort and soothe your heart. His promises, found in the Holy Scriptures, can offer much hope. It assures us at John 5:28,29 that our loved ones will be remembered and brought back to life in the resurrection. Please allow God's Word to strengthen you and help you to endure this most difficult time.
