

Bettie Lee Wright

October 11, 1932 - August 6, 2023

Bettie was born Tuesday, October 11, 1932, in South Boston, Virginia, daughter of the late Oscar Clarence Stokes and the late Anna Mae Sims.

Bettie was a graduate of the South Boston, Virginia, School System. Following graduation, at seventeen years of age, Bettie moved to Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, to live with her Uncle Frank and his family.

Years later, Bettie met and married the late Robert William Wright in 1954. Their union was blessed with three children, Robert, Lawrence and Karren. Bettie was employed in numerous positions over the years and retired from the Philadelphia School System as an Assistant Food Service Manager after thirty-five years of dedicated service.

Prior to relocating to Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, Bettie was a member of both Nazarene Baptist Church and Canaan Baptist Church. In 2019, she united in Christian fellowship with DaySpring Ministries, Middletown, Pennsylvania.

On Sunday, August 6, 2023, at the blessed age of ninety, Bettie Lee Wright was called Home to be with her Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. She was preceded in death by her parents, her husband, one son, Robert Wayne Wright in 2013, two brothers and five sisters.

Bettie leaves a legacy of love to be emulated by her two children, Lawrence Alexander Wright and Karren Marie Wright-Gilchrist (Calvin); two grandchildren, Lisa Marie Gilchrist and Calvin Eugene Gilchrist; five great-grandchildren and a host of cousins, nieces, nephews and friends.
