Betty L. Allen

“Life is but a precious moment, love lives on forever.”

~~~~~

Betty L. Allen, daughter of the late Benjamin Wright and the late Mildred Counts Mayo, was born Thursday, July 17, 1947, in Steelton, PA, where she graduated from Steelton High School.

Betty was formerly employed by the Commonwealth of PA, Department of Welfare. She had an outgoing and sociable personality. Leisurely, she enjoyed playing cards and solving crossword puzzles.

At sixty-eight years of age, on Thursday, September 24, 2015, God In His Infinite Wisdom and Divine Love, called Betty into Eternal Life from her home in Harrisburg, PA, joining her beloved parents and two sisters, Mary Ann Counts and Mildred Mayo.

Betty leaves to celebrate her life and share special memories her husband, James Allen of Richmond, VA; three children, Richard Allen of Harrisburg, Sheryl LaManna of Reading, PA, and Yvette Allen of Harrisburg; four siblings, Rose Counts of Harrisburg, Melvin Mayo, Darren Mayo and Sheldon Mayo, all of Reading; as well as five grandchildren, other relatives and friends.
