

Bradley T. Jackson Sr.

June 8, 1958 - April 1, 2026

Bradley T. Jackson Sr. was born to the late Lynward L. Hudson Sr. and Joyce A. Jackson in Harrisburg, PA.

He attended Harrisburg City Schools, where his personality and athletic ability earned him spots on several all-star teams and a tryout with the Pittsburgh Pirates at age 16.

Brad graduated from Harrisburg High in 1976. He was a PA Big 33 nominee and named “Mr. Touchdown,” earning a football scholarship at Shippensburg University.

Shortly thereafter, he became a father and entered the workforce, not because he had to; he believed he was “doing the right thing.”

Brad’s father was a licensed cosmetologist and licensed barber teacher, the first Black owner of a hair supply store in Dauphin County, PA, and the first Black owner of a barber school on the East Coast, known as “The Hudson Building,” a historical landmark in the community that stands today. There, he became a licensed barber. His brother then opened “Hudson’s Bar” on the lower level, where Brad bartended.

Brad was a certified bartender with JK Catering. He reminded us that he was a “mixologist.” He was also a “spadeologist.” According to him, he studied any talent or skill and was a specialist. If you ask him, he had the right ingredients for the perfect burger, named “Brad Burgers,” which we will miss.

Brad managed a full-time job and two part-time jobs for thirty-plus years. He worked with JK Catering and, interchangeably, between Arnold Logistics, Jacobson Companies, Norbert Dentressangle, XPO, and GXO due to changes in ownership, before retiring from Harrisburg Dairies in 2023. He continued working part-time for GXO until he was hospitalized.

Brad was reliable and dependable. He was a supervisor, team leader, and a friend to all whom he encountered. He was committed to making a difference in people's lives and creating a legacy he could be proud of through hard work and dedication. He was a former member of Day Springs Ministries under the leadership of Pastor Clifford Ashe. In Brad’s words, “I thank God every day.”

God united Brad and Schumetta in 2004. A foundation of love was created that no man could separate.

Brad loved family, music, entertainment, and sports. He was an avid Pittsburgh Steelers, Penn State, New York Yankees, and Philadelphia Phillies fan. A man of many talents and competitive in nature, he was athletic and physically fit, never ceasing to challenge us to pushups or some game he made up.

He organized family bowling events and made the most of every moment. He spoke highly of his “Legacy” and the life he created. He was happy with the life he lived and at peace with life. He was emotional with each of us as he expressed how proud he was of our accomplishments. He made a great effort in letting us know that he loved us without a doubt. Brad's legacy will continue through his children and grandchildren.

He is survived by his wife, Schumetta of 24 years; his children, Terece Cyrus, Bradley T. Jackson Jr. (Angela) of New Bern, NC, Davelle Crawford, Kyon Jackson of Nashville, TN, Sharicka Peters of York, PA, Brandon Jackson of Philadelphia, Sydnee Rasberry of Pine Hills, NJ; and 13 grandchildren. He is also survived by his beloved chosen son, Devon Washington Sr. (Christina); 7 brothers, Lynward L. Hudson Jr., Brian Hudson (Gena), Marlin Hudson, Adrian Jackson (Karen), Kerry Jackson, Eugene Jackson, and Earle Jackson; 4 sisters, Lynida Hudson, Pamela Waters, Shari Jackson-Ross (Dwayne), and Monica Jackson. He was preceded in death by his sister, Patricia Hudson Miller.

Flower delivery, 8:30 a.m., Friday, April 10, at From The Heart Church Ministries.

“ It was my honor to have known Brad. I was his coach in Flag Football for many years, his team mate his friend. I have many fond memories of our times playing ball together along with his sidekick Tony Brunner. I think of Brad and Tony often. I will continue to think of him and always with a big smile on my face.

“ I love you Cuz, you were a big part of my childhood. I’m so happy we reconnected again at the “Family Circle” reunions. Even happier I was able to tell you stories from my perspective about “Bussy” and all us kids, sports, specifically my failure at baseball, the drill team, Jackson House of Beauty, the drive in, Hershey Park and so much more.

Rest easy Bradley, I love you!

“ My sincerest condolences to all who loved Brad. My fondest memories are us running the halls of Hbg High School Class of 76. Brad was an outstanding athlete known as "Mr Touchdown" He wore that title well. He left a mark on our class that won't be forgotten. It was a joy to run into him, he always greeted me with a beaming smile. His bsence will be deeply felt at our upcoming 50th Class Reunion. You will be sorely missed Brad, Rest Well Dear Brother 🏈🏀

“ In our busy lives we don't get to see family as much as want to but when we do get together it's always a good time and lots of love shared. Uncle Brad was definitely one of the "Cool" uncles that would get the party going and share some words of wisdom and encouragement along the way. Sending love and light to my family to keep their spirits up and keep Uncle Brads memory alive.
