“ Merry Christmas Baby,
This is the second Xmas without you and everything is different. I am thankful that mommy is here but nothing is the same. Trying to be happy and not feel down, tired of being strong I just want you back 😞 I know that I will have many more days, months, hours and seconds like this. However, I am being the strong woman that u taught me to be. I love you so much and honestly I'm happy that you are finally happy and free, just trying to learn how to live without you. My heart, my strength, my love my second mom. Love you Queen and Merry Christmas again 😞💔

“ Happy Thanksgiving Queen!
I woke up this morning, thinking that I will not get to see you today and I feel broken. This is the first Thanksgiving without you and I feel all over the place, my thoughts keep going back to last thanksgiving when we were all together and those thoughts won't leave. I miss you sooo much and now every holiday will be hard for me to get through. Mommy feels empty, we all do. I would give anything to talk to you, hug you, kiss you, I hate this feeling of emptiness. I love you beyond words or even expression, hope your enjoying your holiday. Hug and kiss my other angels pls. Gram, Pop Pop I love you.
Happy Thanksgiving!

“ Here I go again, writing this online. Mom mom, this hurts so bad. Still in disbelief and as the days go by I realize that I can't physically see you or even call you, and yes this is becoming more real. I try so hard not to think about u, however, I still do. I miss you so much and I feel disconnected from the family. Now it is only the 3 of us and this is very traumatic for us all. Mom mom, I love you and I would give anything to just see u again. 💔

“ Mom mom,
I've been thinking about you non stop! I know that Pop pop enjoyed his birthday with you in town. This still seems so unreal and at this very moment I can not believe that I have to come to this website to express how I'm feeling about u. Things, I mean life is so different. I find myself trying to hold it together daily and especially if I see or hear anything that reminds me of you. This year on pop pops b'day was difficult for me unlike any of his other b'day n I am really unsure as to why. I am thinking that it really made me realize that both of you are gone forever and that's one thing that I am still not able to accept. I love you's both so much. 💔💔💔

“ Mom, mom

I am so hurt that you are not here. I am still affected by your death and I have no way to overcome this hurt and grief. I know that you probably loved me more than anybody and you always showed me with your actions. I need you more now than ever before, I feel alone without you and I would do anything to talk to you, hug you or even call you. Kiss Gram and Pop pop for me and let them know that I am doing everything in life to keep them proud of me. You were my biggest supporter, you always told me how proud I made you...I love you forever and a day.

“ I find u in my thoughts as soon as I open my eyes, throughout the day and when I fall asleep. Still trying to figure out why it was your time to go. I'm starting to feel angry with God because I don't have answers. These are the same feelings I had when Gram left n I am angry, sad, upset and confused. I love u sooo much I miss you 💔
