

Brian M. Clapp

January 5, 1965 - September 17, 2024

Brian M. Clapp passed away peacefully in his home on September 17, 2024. Brian was born in Everett, Washington, on January 5, 1965, to Mick and Norma Clapp and was raised in Snohomish, Washington, with his sister, Kelly Clapp.

After graduating from Snohomish High School in 1983, Brian began his career in the printing industry. For many years, Brian traveled the world installing and working on printing presses. For nearly a decade, Brian resided in Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, where he worked for United Grinding as a Field Service Engineer.

Brian loved the outdoors, Jeeps, four wheeling, motorcycles and good food.

Brian is survived by his mother and father, Mick and Norma Clapp; sister, Kelly Clapp; son, Brandon Clapp; daughter-in-law Mariana; granddaughter Amelia; the mother of his son, Pamela Clapp; and his best friend, Andy Sammick.

He will be forever lovingly remembered in the hearts of his loved ones.

“ Sending our love, thoughts and prayers from Minnesota. We always enjoyed our time spent with Brian when the Jeep club would go wheeling in Liberty. We had a nice visit with him last year when we were out in Washington. Micky, Norma and family may the memories you all made help you find peace in this difficult time.

“ What a wonderful friend Brian was. He will be so dearly missed. We will cherish the time we were able to spend with him over the years. The hours of phone conversations will always be tucked away in our heart. We send our deepest condolences to Mick, Norma, Kelly, Pam and Brandon. Brandon, your dad was so proud of the young man you have become. We will always be here for you. God Bless You. Andy & Jennifer
