

Brian Pendelton Easter

April 14, 1985 - June 18, 2011

The Obituary

Brian Pendelton Easter

“Why cry for a soul set free? Miss me, but let me go.”

Brian was born Sunday, April 14, 1985, in Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, son of Alicia Williams and James Easter.

Brian graduated from Harrisburg High School. He had a thirst for knowledge and enjoyed reading, rapping and playing basketball. He had a special passion for writing which allowed him to author three books. Totally dedicated to the Lord and His Word, he was united in Christian Fellowship with Kingdom Embassy. He loved spending time “chillin” with his family. Brian was truly “a jack-of-all-trades and a master-of-none.”

In his twenty-sixth year, on Saturday, June 18, 2011, Brian passed from this earthly world of labor to the reward of eternal life.

He was predeceased by his maternal grandmother, Margaret Sharp; maternal grandfather, Leslie Williams; and paternal grandfather, Thomas Easter Sr.

Brian is survived by his mother, Alicia Williams; father, James Easter; stepfather, Brian Pendelton; paternal grandmother, Shirley Easter; his loving daughter, Tati`yana Harris who he adored and spent his days desiring only to be closer to her; his siblings, Charlicia and Charkeisha Slade, Taijaray Pendelton, Shalakemia Moffit, Shaka Easter, Courtney and Charles Slade, Jamal Butler, James Moffit, Shane Ross, Tre` and Carlton Easter; aunts, Sandra Sharp, Delores Williams, Alease Roberts and Eunice Easter, all of Harrisburg; uncles, George Sharp of Harrisburg, and Ronald Chambers of Lancaster; special friend, Tina Harris; other relatives and friends.

Brian's loving heart and compassion allowed him to be a wonderful father, son, grandson, brother, nephew, cousin and friend. He will be sorely missed.

With Faith In God's Blessed Assurance,
Submitted by The Family

Tribute Wall

RW

“ My boy you will always and always be remembered I love and miss you with all my heart but i know you have a way more important job to do than hang around the wild life animals and im saying that to say this i remeber when we use to run these streets with our diapers on we was out here all day early

---

Ronnie White - September 25, 2012 at 09:06 PM