“ You were a bright light in our lives, and your spirit was infectious. You weren’t just a friend. You were part of our family. Maura is having a difficult time. So she needs a new angel to watch over her as she processes yet, another loss in her life. Thank you for being her friend, accepting her, and bringing out the best in her. Especially with throwing the javelin. We have so many fun and loving memories to hold close to our hearts. I actually considered you a second daughter. I called you Britt! You called me Mrs. “B,” and at times, “Mom.” You truly impacted our lives, and we recognized your talent, and loving heart that wanted nothing more, than to be loved in return. My heart breaks as I write this “farewell.” It’s just too soon! However, it helps to know you are in the arms of angels, and with our Heavenly Father. We love you always and forever! ❤️ Mrs. “B,” Mr. “B,” and the friend who loved you the most...Maura. 💕💕

“ I will forever remember Brittany in her purple Ugg boots and her Infectious smile- always walking into my office to crack jokes before practice or class. Just thinking of her laugh makes me smile. She was the kind of kid you loved to coach; positive, selfless, and loyal. I adored her as an gifted athlete, a fun-loving student, and a beautiful young lady. She had a presence that brought out the best in everyone around her. My heart breaks for the pain you must be feeling. My thoughts and prayers are with you.
