

Mr. Calvin Lemont Hughes

September 20, 1969 - February 9, 2019

Calvin, son of Cordelia Hughes and the late Shirley Hughes Jr., was born September 20, 1969, in Greensboro, North Carolina.

He graduated from Harrisburg High, John Harris Campus, Class of 1989. At a very young age, Calvin assumed the role of caring for his family. He accepted this responsibility with loving strength and maturity. Over the years, he held numerous jobs; however, following a serious and near-fatal accident which Calvin survived by God's grace and his mother's prayers, he decided to pursue higher education and career goals. God turned his life around, and he became a servant of the people always willing to help anyone and everyone. He earned degrees from Penn State University, Messiah College and Chambersburg University. Calvin had a special and loving heart for children. Upon becoming licensed as a Registered Nurse, he accepted employment as a Psychiatric Nurse working with "at-risk" children at Schaffner Youth Center and at the Pennsylvania Psychiatric Institute (PPI) working with children with mental health issues. Presently, he was employed by Ameri Health Caritas. Calvin was united in Christian fellowship with Gospel Fellowship Church under the pastorate of Bishop William Dallas. He loved the Lord and served as a Security Guard at his church. He loved to sing and was a "die-hard" Steelers fan.

On Saturday, February 9, 2019, in his forty-ninth year, Calvin Lemont Hughes departed this life leaving to cherish and honor a legacy of love, strength, and a faithful servant, his mother, Cordelia Hughes; sisters, Shirley Hughes, Lisa

Hughes-Bobbitt; brother, Mark Hughes; sons, Alberto Carrington, Donovan Montgomery; fiancée, Grace Katayi; one grandchild, Amari Latayi known as “Lil Suzzy;” other relatives and friends.

“ Calvin and I spent a few weeks together when he first arrived to AmeriHealth. Many of those days I thought about how joyful he was as a human being. I often thought he is exactly what the nursing community needs more of. Care, compassion and a true beam of light. He had stopped by my desk mere days before his home going to check on me because he knew I recently lost my mother. Kindness was displayed until the end. My heart goes out to Calvin's mother, his many family and friends and I pray that our Father God holds you close in the palm of his hand during this difficult and sad time.

P.S. He talked about his Grace and Lil Suzy right from the door. May you find some comfort in knowing you were in his thoughts and in his heart !
