

Mother Carolyn Sanders

March 4, 1945 - July 22, 2022

Mother Carolyn Sanders, daughter of the late Allen Perry Sr. and the late Josephine (Lovett) Perry, was born Sunday, March 4, 1945, in Clio, Georgia.

Carolyn received her formal education in the Effingham County School System, Springfield, Georgia. She later moved to Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, where she retired from Capital Area Transit and always took great pride in her position there as a CAT Bus Driver.

At a very young age, Carolyn accepted Jesus Christ as her personal Savior. She was called into ministry and was bestowed Evangelist while attending Faith Temple Church of God in Christ under the leadership of the late Shepherd Julia Hall. She continued her Christian fellowship and ministry at Bible Fellowship Christian Church serving as Mother of the Church, Sunday School Teacher, Choir Member and Praise Leader. Carolyn was a prayer warrior always believing and proclaiming that "God will always bring me out." She took great pleasure in praying, reading "The Word," singing old-time gospel music and spending time with her sister whom she loved dearly.

On Friday, July 22, 2022, Carolyn was received by her Heavenly Father into Eternal Rest. Along with her parents, she was preceded in death by eight brothers, Willie Lee Perry, Allen Perry Jr., Major Perry, Lawrence Perry, Artist Perry, Marvin Perry, Calvin Perry, Tyrone Perry; and two sisters, Rosa Milliner
