

Deaconess Carrie B. Davis

December 20, 1941 - August 6, 2014

Carrie B. Davis

~~~~~

“Please do not dwell upon my death.

Remember not my trials through life, remember not the sadness.

Just remember all the happiness and joyously celebrate my ETERNAL Life.”

~~~~~

Carrie B. Davis, daughter of the late Lucious Bradley and the late Victoria Dabney Bradley, was born Saturday, December 20, 1941, in Bremono Bluff, Virginia.

Carrie received her formal education in Fluvanna County, VA, where she graduated from S. C. Abrams High School. She united in holy matrimony with Clarkson “Buddy” Davis who preceded her in death on May 11, 2011. At the time of Buddy’s passing, Carrie and Buddy had shared forty-two years of marriage and had been blessed with two devoted children, Karen and Vincent. Carrie retired from the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, Department of Revenue. A devoted homemaker, “cook-extraordinaire,” she loved her church and traveling; however, foremost, was the love she shared with her family. Carrie’s Christian faith was evidenced by her membership and commitment formerly to Harris A.M.E. Zion Church and presently to New Anointed Christian Fellowship Ministries under the pastorate of Reverend Donald E. Brantley Sr. She faithfully served as Deaconess and with the Stewardess

Board. A quiet, kind lady, Carrie always greeted you with a warm smile. During the holidays, she loved sharing her cakes and sweet potato pies with family and friends.

At seventy-two years of age, while at the Harrisburg Hospital, Harrisburg, PA, on Wednesday, August 6, 2014, Carrie fell asleep in the Lord passing from labor to reward joining her parents, husband, two step-siblings and other loved ones.

Remembering and cherishing her legacy of love, faith and commitment are her daughter, Karen Davis (Richard); her son, Vincent Davis; two grandchildren, Kyla Davis and Jeremy Brown, all of Harrisburg; a stepson, Aaron Davis (Rachel) of Philadelphia, PA; two sisters-in-law, Marion Sellers of Harrisburg and Edith Dade of Bowie, MD; sister/cousin, LaVern McMillan of Oxen Hill, MD; eleven step-siblings; as well as other family members and friends.

Lovingly Submitted with the Blessed Assurance of Carrie's Eternal Life!

The Family

Her life will be celebrated at 11 a.m., Wednesday, August 13th, at Wallace Funeral Directors with viewing from 10 to 11 a.m. Interment will be Thursday, August 14th, at Indiantown Gap National Cemetery.

Tribute Wall

TM

“ Please accept my condolences on the loss of your loved one. Take comfort in knowing that our Heavenly Father, Jehovah God, understand your pain. He will soon remove all pain, sorrow , and Death forever. (Revelation 12:3&4). May this promise be of comfort to the family as you gain the strenght and inner peace to cope with the time ahead.

(Philippians 4:13) . You can read or listen online at www.jw.org

---

Teri Morgan - August 12, 2014 at 01:26 PM

WH

“ Miss Carrie was a wonderful neighbor and friend as we lived together on Holly Street. We had some wonderful times solving neighborhood problems, having block parties and sharing cookies at Christmas. Her big smile and concern for my girls as we raised our families together in the city will always be remembered. She was a wonderful example to me of a Christian woman who knew how to love her neighbors.

---

Wanda Heise - August 10, 2014 at 03:35 PM