

Mrs. Carrie Neal Smith

November 2, 1923 - January 7, 2013

Mrs. Carrie Neal Smith

“...Eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man, the things which God hath prepared for them that love him.”

I Corinthians 2:9

Carrie Neal Smith, daughter of Sam Knox and Annie Worthy-Floyd, was born Friday, November 2, 1923, in Gastonia, North Carolina.

Carrie received her formal education in Gastonia, and in 1969, the family relocated to Harrisburg, Pennsylvania. Very industrious, Carrie's employment history included the former Penn Harris Hotel, the G. C. Murphy Store and retirement as a housekeeper from Town and Country Apartments now known as “The Brooks.” She loved serving her Lord as a member of The Greater Zion Missionary Baptist Church where she faithfully attended until declining health. Carrie had a beautiful smile and enjoyed cooking and sewing. She instilled in her family the importance of a pleasant persona and respect for others.

In Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, on Monday, January 7, 2013, Carrie peacefully fell asleep in the Lord while surrounded by her loving children and grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Sam Knox and Annie Worthy-Floyd; husband, Guy Smith; daughter, Bonnie Smith; son-in-law, Gregory Oliver; stepson, Leonard Sims; daughter-in-law, Vickie Smith; and granddaughter, Atiya Smith. Surviving are four sons, Frederick (Michelle), William and Jerry, all of Harrisburg, and Michael of Bellefonte; seven daughters, Linda Smith, Sandra Watlington (Earl), Millie Bradley (George), Marilyn Smith, Glenda Oliver, Rita Smith and Lorie Logan, all of Harrisburg; sister-in-law, Minnie Grier of Belmont, NC; twenty-eight grandchildren, forty great-grandchildren, twelve great-great-grandchildren; nieces, nephews and other relatives.
