

Charles "Stink" Johnson

September 2, 1950 - September 28, 2024

Charles Johnson, affectionately known as "Stink" by family and friends, was born Saturday, September 2, 1950, in Harrisburg, PA, son of the late John Ford and the late Elizabeth (Johnson) Ford.

A graduate of Harrisburg High, Charles served in the United States Army during the Vietnam Conflict receiving the Special Conflict Service Medal. After twenty-five years of dedicated service, he retired from the New Cumberland Army Depot. Charles enjoyed playing the lottery and walking his dog Muggle.

On Saturday, September 28, 2024, while at UPMC Osteopathic Hospital in Harrisburg, Charles completed his earthly journey at seventy-four years of age joining in eternal life his parents and four of his siblings, Josephine Hicks, John Johnson, Thomas Johnson and Michael Ford.

Charles' light will continue to shine brightly in the hearts of his two sons, Charles "Chas" Johnson of Dundalk, MD, and Kevin Johnson of Harrisburg, PA; his niece, Connie "Kissy" Moore, Harrisburg; four siblings, Charlotte Joy, Della Murray (John), all of Harrisburg, PA, Sharon Sales (Manny) of Pittsburgh, PA, and Jeffrey Ford of Harrisburg; five grandchildren, six great-grandchildren; other family members and friends.
