

Charles Clifford Patrick

December 21, 1933 - May 31, 2010

Charles C. Patrick

Charles Clifford Patrick, at the Homeland Nursing Facility, passed from his earthly life on May 31, 2010. He was a Christian fully persuaded that nothing would keep him from his Heavenly Home.

Charles was a very industrious man; having learned the joy of hard work from his grandfather in Henry County, GA, where he was born on December 21, 1933; that work ethic set the tone for his life. Charles was a patriot. He loved America and served his Country in the U.S. Air Force until he was injured in Guam in 1955. He was a member of the State American Legion. He retired from the City of Harrisburg in 2001, and was also the owner/operator of the Harrisburg Sharpening Service for over 25 years. He was a member of Shiloh Church of God In Christ.

Charles was the eldest and last surviving of three sons of the late Charlie Clifford Patrick and Rosa Belle (Matthews) Patrick. He is survived by his second wife, Sandra (Billet) Patrick; 4 children, Denise Helene Mujahid, Derrick Eugene, Avery Roosevelt and Danyel Marie; 11 grandchildren; and a host of great grandchildren.

Celebration of Life Service will be held at 11 a.m., Monday, June 7, 2010, at Wallace Funeral Directors, with visitation from 10 to 11 a.m. Interment will follow at Indiantown Gap National Cemetery.

Tribute Wall

“ Sandra: I'm so very sorry for your loss. It has been a few years, but know that Charles and you have been a part of my lasting memories. Throughout the past years, I've come to know the air of peace that surrounded you both--and now fully understand the origin of it. It had always amazed me --the peace that you both shared. Yes, the last sentence , and the shortest sentence of the Bible--"My peace I give to you." (John)

May the peace that was in your life with Charles, help you, sustain you, and guide you in this trying of life's times.

David Swinehart
