

MR. Charles Robinson Jr.

April 1, 1960 - April 23, 2013

The Obituary

Charles Robinson Jr.

“Death is the Gateway to Eternal Life”

Charles Robinson Jr., affectionately known as “Chuck,” transitioned into eternal life on Tuesday, April 23, 2013, while at his home in Harrisburg, PA.

He was born April 1, 1960, in Brooklyn, New York, son of the late Charles and Ruth Robinson. Chuck received his formal education in New York City. Upon arriving in Harrisburg, he became employed by the United Methodist Neighborhood Day Care Center where he met his wife Melissa. Later he worked as a security officer for Wackenhut Inc. until he fell ill and had to retire.

Chuck loved fishing and baseball and was a lifelong fan of the New York Yankees. He enjoyed politics and loved keeping abreast of current events by watching CNN and MSNBC. Another favorite of Chuck’s was the History Channel for which he would be glued to the TV for hours.

In addition to his parents, he was preceded into eternal life by his sister, Laverne Echols. He leaves to cherish his memory, his wife Melissa, her sister Vanessa and mother-in-law Polly; his brothers and sisters, Roderick and wife

Alice Robinson, Gail and husband Christopher Johnson, Diana and husband Milton Thomas, Bruce Robinson, Renee and husband Kenneth Curry and Tammy Copeland; uncles and aunts, James and wife Lillie Bush, Armond Bush and Rheatis Grant; as well as a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

Lovingly Submitted, The Family

Chuck,

Our Brother, Uncle, Cousin and Friend

Rest In Peace!