

Charles Herman Wallace Sr.

September 7, 1944 - January 5, 2021

Charles H. Wallace Sr., son of the late Alfred Wallace Sr. and Hattie M. (Degraffenreid) Wallace, was born Thursday, September 7, 1944, in Chester, South Carolina. Educated in the Chester County public school system, Charles graduated from Finley High School, Class of 1963.

A hardworking, determined young man from childhood to adulthood, Charles loved to share stories of how he delivered milk and newspapers in the early morning hours before school, played football, and after school worked at the local gasoline station, cut grass and did landscaping. Charles also shared how he watched the older guys in the neighborhood cut hair and decided that would be his profession. As a teenager, he practiced his barbering skills on anyone willing to take a chance.

Upon his high school graduation, Charles moved to Steelton, PA, pursuing business opportunities. His entrepreneurial spirit led him to a barbering apprenticeship at a local Steelton barbershop, and he enrolled at the former Harrisburg School of Barbering. After earning his Pennsylvania License, he was “off-to-the-races.” At that time, Charles opened an all-inclusive barbershop in Harrisburg, PA. He was excellent at his craft and earned a reputation as one of the best. His brother Gene Wallace worked beside him for many years, and together they established a lucrative business where many stopped by just for the camaraderie. A CNN junkie and sports enthusiast, Charles was well-versed on whatever was happening in the world of sports and politics. He loved a lively debate on any and all subjects.

Several years later, Charles earned his Master Barber/Teaching PA License enabling him to hire additional employees through apprenticeships. He was instrumental in assisting many local barbers and beauticians establish their own businesses, and he helped those incarcerated and those in job-training programs rehabilitate. This determined, ambitious trailblazer forged ahead with the establishment of Wallace's Men and Women's Salon, Sir Charles' Beauty Innovations, Wallace's Hair Replacement and Wallace Rental Property, the renovation of residential and business properties.

HIS PASTIMES WERE WORK, WORK AND MORE WORK.

As the result of being around his cousins who owned funeral homes in South Carolina and North Carolina, Charles always dreamed of being in the funeral business. His ultimate vision was realized with the establishment of Wallace Funeral Directors, Inc. He remained a business pioneer from 1965 through 2020 overcoming many challenges.

A longtime member of The First Baptist Church of Steelton, Charles served with the Usher Ministry and as Chairman of the Trustee Board for many years. He loved his church and was instrumental in the building and renovations of the new church. He also made many contributions to his community and was the recipient of many awards and recognitions for dedicated service which included numerous Community Service Awards, Steelton Family Reunion Honoree, the African American Chamber of Commerce Senior Entrepreneurial Award and Black History recognition. He was a lifetime member of the NAACP and a member of Paxton Lodge #16.

On Tuesday, January 5, 2021, at seventy-six years of age, Charles completed his journey joining in eternal life his parents, Alfred Wallace Sr. and Hattie M. Wallace; sister, Margaret McCullough; and youngest brother, Tommy Wallace.

Charles is survived by his wife, Shirley A. (Blanding) Wallace; son, Charles H. Wallace Jr. (Tracie); two grandsons, Myles Wallace, Jerrell Blaine; godson, John W. "Jay" Harris Jr., all of Harrisburg, PA; his siblings, Ethel Owens (James) of Chester, SC, Alfred Wallace of Boonton, NJ, Freddie Wallace (Roberta) of Sayreville, NJ, Eugene Wallace (Geraldine) of Harrisburg, PA, Bernice Frederick of Henderson, NV, Bessie Wallace, Joanne Watson (Milton), Anita Washington (Clarence), all of Harrisburg, PA; many nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

“ The Banks family extends our sincere condolences to Sis. Shirley, Bro. Charles, Jr, Sis. Tracey, Myles and the entire the family of Charles Wallace, Sr.

As a Trustee, Bro. Charles will be remembered as someone who took an interest in the wellbeing of the youth of the First Baptist Church of Steelton. He could be counted on to give monetary donations for items needed by the youth ministry. We could count on him to check-in on the children and to make sure the outside doors of the church were locked when the youth ministry had sleepovers. Each Sunday he would enter the sanctuary after service started. On one occasion I had to explain to my two daughters who asked why Mr. Charles would come into the sanctuary after service had started that he was carrying out his Trustee duties by checking to make sure the doors throughout the back of the church were locked. One Sunday, my daughters went to the back of the church to check to see for themselves. They came back to me and happily reported they saw Mr. Charles in the back checking the doors. After our daughters went to college, Bro. Charles would not pass by me without asking about them. He made a point that I tell them he asked about them. His inquiry was sincere and my daughters would appreciate his asking about them. They would ask how he was doing throughout the years. He made such a positive and lasting impression upon them.

“ To the Wallace Family,
Charles had a name that was well known and highly respected throughout the Harrisburg area. It was an honor to call him my buddy. My husband and son were his clients for many years, and wouldn't go anywhere else.
I pray God's comfort and blessings over you during this time, and in “ To: Shirley, Charles Jr. Bessie, Joanne and the entire Wallace family, I am sincerely praying for you that God will wrap his arms around each one of you in these most difficult times. Shirley, Joanne, Bessie and I worked together at Highmark (aka PA Blue Shield) for many years. Charles was my sons first Barber at the age of 2 and a friendship was immediately developed. Charles was a laid back, unassuming young man who had a beautiful personality and had a way with children. He will truly be missed by all who knew and loved him. Rest in peace, Charles, we will see all our friends in the morning. What a day of rejoicing that will be.

“ I first met Charles Wallace when he was cutting at Mr. Terrys shop on 13th St. He was an icon in Hbg. providing employment and knowledge to all who listened. I'll never forget when Charles would say to me "if you're in a hurry Greeny, we got some new heads in the basement. Pick one out and your head will be done in an hour. I remember as MBE Director of Hbg School District construction projects I asked Charles to come speak. He spoke eloquently, knowledgeably and I'll never forget he closed with "never forget to do a good job, then you'll always get another opportunity." My friend Charles was a great man and a true community leader. Richard Green
