

Mrs. Charlotte B. Broadus

April 6, 1951 - March 3, 2017

Charlotte was born April 6, 1951, in Reading, PA, daughter of the late Aaron Jackson and the late Mary Branford Jackson.

Charlotte received her formal education in Reading where she graduated from Reading High School. She retired from the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. Charlotte was united in Christian fellowship with Tabernacle Baptist Church, Harrisburg, PA, where she served with the Deaconess, Missionary and Pastor's Aide Ministries as well as in numerous other capacities. She was affiliated with the Order of the Eastern Star and the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks.

At the age of sixty-five, while at Carolyn's House Hospice Residence, Harrisburg, on Friday, March 3, 2017, Charlotte passed from labor to reward exchanging mortality for immortality. Not only was she preceded in death by her parents, but by one son, Vincent Jackson, and one grandson, Erick Murray.

Charlotte leaves to remember her life and cherish good times and even some challenging times her husband, John "Ken" Broadus of Harrisburg; two sons, James "Jamie" Jackson of Harrisburg, and Cameron Jackson of Chambersburg, PA; daughter-in-law, Lucy Jackson of Reading; two sisters, Barbara Bass of York, PA, and Sharly Battle of Reading; one brother, Barry Jackson of Reading; three stepchildren, Byron Jay Broadus, Yolanda Hutchinson and Kimberly Swan, all of Pittsburgh, PA; other relatives and friends.
