

Mr. Christopher C. Baskerville

January 11, 1956 - September 21, 2013

Christopher C. Baskerville Sr.

“When tomorrow starts without me, don’t think we’re far apart.
For every time you think of me
I’m right there in your hearts.”

Christopher C. Baskerville Sr. was born Wednesday, January 11, 1956, in Harrisburg, Pennsylvania. He was predeceased by his parents, Christopher Warren and Lucy Christina Baskerville; and two sisters, Theresa Mollineaux and Doris Baskerville.

Christopher attended William Penn High School. A skilled carpenter for thirty-five years, he was employed over the years by various drywall companies in the area. As a confession of his Christian faith, he was united in fellowship with the Mount Calvary Church of God in Christ, Harrisburg.

While at the Harrisburg Hospital, in his fifty-seventh year, on Saturday, September 21, 2013, Christopher transitioned into eternal life passing from the labors of his earthly journey to his victorious everlasting reward.

Christopher leaves to share memories of many good times and even some challenging times his four children, Christopher C. Baskerville Jr. and his wife Soni of Harrisburg, Felicia N. Curry and Charles E. Curry, both of Frederick, Maryland, and Tacoy Baskerville of Harrisburg; his two sisters, Betty Baskerville and Christina Butler and her husband John, all of Harrisburg; eleven grandchildren, one great grandchild, nieces, nephews, other relatives and a beloved friend.

“...the Lord gave, and the Lord hath taken away; blessed be the name of the Lord.” Job 1:21

Lovingly Submitted, The Family

Mr. Baskerville's life will be celebrated at 11 A.M., Saturday, October 5th, at Wallace Funeral Directors with viewing/visitation from 10:30 to 11 A.M. and interment at Ash Memorial Cemetery, Sandy Spring, MD.
