

Christopher M. Williams

September 10, 1972 - December 21, 2010

CHRISTOPHER MICHAEL WILLIAMS, affectionately called “Chris” and “Scooter,” was born Sunday, September 10, 1972, in Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, to the union of Louis E. Williams, Jr., and AnnaMaria Williams. On Tuesday, December 21, 2010, at the Harrisburg Hospital, our Lord and Savior called His loving child home.

Chris received his formal education in the Harrisburg Public School System, graduating from Harrisburg High School with the Class of 1990. He also attended Harrisburg Area Community College.

At an early age, he joined the Beulah Baptist Church and often attended church with his “Mommae.” Chris loved football and his favorite team was the Miami Dolphins. He also loved computers; but, most of all, Chris loved spending time with his family. When he was able, one could always see Chris riding his scooter to visit his cousins in uptown Harrisburg.

Chris was predeceased by his loving maternal great grandmother, Willa Mae Parker, maternal grandmother, Mildred Williams, paternal grandmother, Dorothy Williams and a very close cousin, Lorenzo Miller.

In addition to his loving parents, Chris leaves to celebrate his life: his sister, Tashi Ulen; his stepbrothers, Louis Williams, III, and Taj Williams; his stepsisters, StarKisha Williams and LaKiya Williams; stepfather, Kirk Orem; stepmother, Denise Williams; niece, Ashale` Bynon; as well as a host of nephews, nieces, uncles, aunts, cousins and friends who will all miss Chris’s beautiful smile, fun-loving personality and will forever cherish memories of wonderful times spent together.
