

Cortney Quayndell Jackson

May 23, 1992 - March 4, 2013

Cortney Q. Jackson, son of Marian and Raymond Urrutia and Franklin Jackson Jr., was born Saturday, May 23, 1992, in Harrisburg, Pennsylvania.

“Cort,” as he was affectionately known by family and friends, attended Susquehanna Township High School and was formerly employed by Berks and Beyond Temporary Staffing. Cort loved watching and playing basketball and football, especially his 2013 Super Bowl Champions--the Baltimore Ravens. Computers, hanging out with friends, and, foremost, spending time with his younger sister Zaria who he loved dearly and his grandfather William (Bobby) who he affectionately called “Pop/His Best Friend,” were also among those things Cort truly enjoyed.

In Harrisburg, on Monday, March 4, 2013, Cort departed this earthly life transitioning into eternal life. He leaves to share the grief of his sudden passing and forever cherish many special memories: his devoted parents, Marian and Raymond Urrutia; his father, Franklin Jackson Jr.; his sisters, Zaria and Rayquel Urrutia, Aisha and Niara Glenn; brothers, Jerrell Blaine and Josiah Jackson, all of Harrisburg; beloved maternal grandparents, William and Arminta Adger; his “Nan-Nan,” Blondell Smith; paternal grandmother, Lise Garnett; his paternal grandparents, Franklin Sr. and Ada Christine Jackson; maternal uncle, Jeffrey Finney (Angela); maternal aunt, Sandra Palmer (John); God-parents, Ricky and Michelle Walker; his God-mother, Nicole

Brannan; his nephew dog "Chance;" a host of aunts, uncles, cousins and many, many friends.

God Is Still God!

“ am sorry to hear of your loss. May you find comfort in family and friends at this difficult time. The Bible gives hope that soon our Creator Jehovah God will end all suffering, pain, and death. And we have the hope of being reunited with our loved ones that have passed away. Rev 21:4, John 5:28-29. There will be many of those asleep in the ground of dust who will wake up to indefinitely everlasting life.

“ I remember Cort when he just a little guy. Marian brought him to the barbershop for me to cut his hair a few times. He was a sharp young Brotha. Although I didn't see him on a regular basis, whenever we saw each other in the neighborhood we would always stop to talk for a few minutes. In fact I just talked to Mr. Bob about Courtney for about a half hour not even a month ago... So sad... He will be greatly missed by many.

RIP,
