

Daiquan A. Phillips

December 10, 2001 - December 26, 2021

Daiquan Anthony Phillips, son of the amazing Ashley Lowry Phillips and Anthony C. Phillips Jr., was born Monday, December 10, 2001, in Harrisburg, PA, into a family of love and affection which attributed to Daiquan's constant smile and his wisdom beyond his age.

Daiquan was a graduate of CCA Cyber Charter School and was a self-employed barber, a profession he really loved. But, what he loved most was his child and his family.

Throughout his life he remained kind, genuine, smart and, above all else, a loving and amazing son, brother, grandson, outstanding father, nephew, cousin and friend. He would do anything for his child and his family.

The love and dedication of his mother and his family started Daiquan in the work force at fourteen years of age. A hard worker, Daiquan was elated to be earning his own money and took great pride in caring for his family. He held down multiple jobs during his short, but amazing life, and he worked every day to the very day of his untimely death.

Daiquan adored his mother whom he affectionately called "Ummi." He loved playing tricks on his Ummi making her laugh as no one else could. He loved his father calling out, "Pops," as he walked through the door or just greeted him. He loved his amazing sisters always laughing, joking, and enjoying being with them while constantly giving them advice on growing into young ladies. Daiquan's love for his son was above, beyond and unmatched. He would stare at his son talking to him and reflecting upon what he would do with him as he grew older.

Daiquan enjoyed taking rides. He would stop by to see his "Nanna Pam" just to check on her and say he loved her as well as his "Nanna Kim" to see her and see if she had cooked. He had amazing relationships with his aunts and uncles whom he admired and often bragged about. He loved his cousins and his friends always joking with them and cutting their hair.

In Harrisburg, PA, on Sunday, December 26, 2021, at twenty years of age, Daiquan transitioned into eternal life as the result of “senseless gun violence!”

Daiquan leaves to mourn and share the unbearable pain and grief of his departure his amazing mother, Ashley Lowry Phillips; father, Anthony C. Phillips Jr.; five sisters who will forever miss him, Danayah Phillips, Danay`sha Phillips, Amari Phillips, Ariyana Phillips and Amiyah Phillips; the pride-and-joy-of-his-life, his son, Kaison Phillips; his son-to-be whom he will never meet but who will carry on his legacy; his children’s mother whom he loved and appreciated, Aunyah Littles; his grandparents, aunts, uncles, cousins, other loving family members and friends.

Daiquan will forever be tremendously missed by all who loved him.

“ Sending heartfelt condolences to the Phillip's family. My late husband & I had the pleasure of meeting your son when he was kind enough to come to the hospital to cut my husband's hair. His company was warm, kind and very much needed for my husband at that time. My husband asked him his plans for the future and he had everything planned out in his order to be a very successful man. He was a beautiful young man with a glowing spirit. We are honored to have been a part of his life and he a part of ours if even for a small moment. Sending prayers of comfort. “ My sincere condolences go out to the Lowry and Phillips families in the passing of DaiDai. I was so shocked when I received the call from my granddaughter about his untimely death. It seems these young ones that pass are the ones we seem to have the hardest time with. With the elderly or sick we almost prepare for their passings. I know my greatest memory of "DaiDai" was when my late husband, Denny and I were invited to dinner at the Lowry's with my late daughter, Jodi Jones and Pat Lowry many years ago. That is when I met Daidai for the first time. He was just a small boy who could dance and make you smile and was the cutest little guy ever. He took the biggest liking to me and me to him that when we decided to leave that night to come back home, we went outside to get into the car and there was DaiDai he opened the backdoor of the car and was sitting there all ready to go. He said he was going home with us. I will never forget that cute little face and look of disappointment as we told him he had to stay with family in Harrisburg. He was quite upset and I told him I would see him again soon. Well, that never came to fruition and now I feel so bad. Here he was all grown with a family and now he is gone. But in my heart, I know I will see him again in our Heavenly home, just as all of you will when God call us Home. DaiDai, is such a handsome young man and from what I have read someone to be very proud of. I am again so sorry this had to happen to him... All my love and prayers... Blessings to all.
