The Obituary

Daisy Virginia Neal

We could remember her and only that she is gone,
Or we could cherish her memory and let it live on.
We will forever remember, cherish and live life with loving memories.

Daisy Virginia Neal was born June 24, 1954, in Petersburg, Virginia, daughter of the late Clarence Hill Sr. and Lethea Cooper Hill.

She received her early education in her hometown of Wakefield, Virginia, and completed her education in the Job Corps, State of Maine, and in Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, through the General Educational Development (GED) Examination. Daisy's employment history spanned the Commonwealth of PA, Department of Revenue, Department of Transportation, Blue Cross/Blue Shield, New Cumberland Naval Supply Depot and Watts Janitorial Service. Daisy enjoyed cooking for any and all occasions, spending time with her family, especially her grandchildren, and avidly cheering for her favorite teams, the Dallas Cowboys and the Philadelphia 76ers.

On Sunday, December 8, 2013, in her fifty-ninth year, while at her home in Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, Daisy completed her earthly journey transitioning into eternal life. In addition to her parents, she was predeceased by five siblings, Clarence "Sugar Pie" Hill Jr., Alesea "Big Sis" Purdie, Alexander L. "Butch" Hill Sr., Robert Lee Hill and James Edward Hill.

Forever cherishing many special memories are one son, Carlos C. Hill of Harrisburg, PA; one daughter, Sulethea M. Hill of Reidsville, North Carolina; six grandchildren, Shaquille Hill of Baltimore, MD, Imani Peterson of Harrisburg, VA, Ewhnik (Dahntae) Proctor of Reidsville, Jay Lee Anderson of Harrisburg, PA, Kyly Anderson and Da`Lord (D.A.) Hill, both of Reidsville; ten siblings, Sophia Hill of Wakefield, VA, Len Hill (Deborah) of Carlisle, PA, Otelia Vines and Cynthia Gray, both of Harrisburg, VA, Angelean Ricks (Clarence), Juanita Jones (Jerell), Margaret Eley (Norris) all of Wakefield, Robert Lee (Margarita) of Maryland, Calvin Ellis (Deborah) and Milton Ellis, all of Wakefield; an uncle, Donald Hill (Vera) of Wakefield; other relatives and friends.

She was always a joy to know, loved by many and missed by more!

Lovingly Submitted, The Family

“ Daisy and I shared a friendship from the Summer of 1978 until her passing. She was one of the best friends I've ever had, loyal, compassionate, supportive, kind and generous. I will always cherish the time we had. May Our Lord embrace her in his loving arms. I'll see you on the other side Miss Daisy Mae. Always and forever you have my love, my dear friend. To Daisy's family, my sincerest condolences, love and prayers go out to you all. A loss of a loved family member is always hard to bare, but the Lord will help you all through it. Peace and love to all.

“ To the family of Ms Daisy Neal . I am sorry to read about the loss of your loved one. The pain is tremendous even with the passage of time. There are scriptures in the Bible to help provide relief of grief and distress. Please read Ps 65:2 that reads “The Hearer of prayers, a source of comfort in times of grief and distress.
