“ Darius always encouraged me to pay attention in school and always asked how I was. Never once was he ever unkind to me. He would always let me pet Loki if I was around and took great care to be a considerate neighbor. He was the type of neighbor you'd save a couple cookies for if you baked some. I'd make brownies and save some for him sometimes because it made him smile like he'd make me smile. Darius will be missed.

“ Condolences to Darius's family and his friends. I served with Darius up at Ft. Drum, My from 2010-2012. Darius and I got to Drum at around the same time and instantly became friends, I still remember him picking me up in his White Excursion with his 26 inch rims haha. We bonded over sports and video games, we used to rib on each others sports teams a lot. I couldn't believe he was a Dallas Cowboys fan while being from Pennsylvania, plus it's the Cowboys. Darius was a great friend that would check in on me and my family from time to time even though it's been over a decade since we've seen each other in person. I will always remember his laugh and the nickname he gave me as Cheedar Bob. I know Darius will be extremely missed by those that he served with at Ft. Drum, rest easy my brother! Til Valhalla
