To the Smith family, please receive my sincere condolences and sympathy for the sudden loss of Ms. Darlene. My heart is truly broken, she was the epitome of femininity, elegance and charm. She was naturally soft, kind and caring. I will never forget our final conversation regarding helping people get to the polls to exercise their right to vote during Harrisburg's 2021 Primary. She helped so many people and had a gift of hospitality and giving. Ms Darlene was a true servant and a great woman of faith and will be cherished forever by the city and community she served so well. Love, Michelle Mardenborough

“ You were one of the first people to give me a true chance at teaching. Your light is in my classroom every day. You were a beacon. You will never be forgotten

“ Words are at a loss I'm so blessed to have known such a warm caring lady. AKA "my cousin" I enjoyed the many laughs we shared. I'm so blessed to have shared a few minutes of your PASCS vision. ❤️❤️🙏
