

Daryl D. "Scooby" Walker

January 11, 1970 - August 15, 2023

Daryl D. Walker, known as "Scooby" by family and friends, was born Sunday, January 11, 1970, in Harrisburg, PA, son of the late William Coles Jr. and the late Barbara Ann Walker.

While in the Job Corps, Scooby received his GED and studied construction and flooring. He was employed by the West Hershey Plant, Hershey, PA, a job he truly loved. Scooby was a devoted and caring family man always enjoying time spent together which included traveling to Virginia hanging out with relatives. Family meant the world to him, and he especially loved all the activities which centered around his children. Scooby had the "gift-of-gab" and was often heard saying: "I don't take any wooden nickels," "Don't cheat yourself, treat yourself," and "It's always a treat when players meet." Last, but not least, we can't leave out how Scooby loved to shine his truck with the uttermost pride and contentment.

In Harrisburg, PA, on Tuesday, August 15, 2023, Daryl D. Walker departed this life at fifty-three years of age joining in eternal life his parents and his son, Dion Darell Walker.

Daryl leaves irreplaceable memories and his love to his devoted wife, Stephanie Walker; his children, Dae`Shauna Walker, Jae`ion Walker, Daryl Walker Jr., Riana Walker and Tenesia Walker; and his grandchildren, Justin Cromer, Shondel Cromer, Zaahir Walker and Kiomora Walker. His legacy will also be honored and cherished by his godchildren, Ava Figueroa and April Adams; his siblings, Takeesha Walker, Shelton Walker, Tabius Walker, Angelique Coles and Benjamin Walker; his stepfathers, Anthony Norris, Douglas J. Robinson; fathers-in-law, Lawrence Boyd and Lorenzo Woodard; sisters-in-law, Angaleek Woodard, Jessica Boyd and Latasha Boyd; along with other family members and friends.

Wow! Scooby, I had just seen you in your truck always smiling, but I'm gonna truly miss you, and remember back in the days when it was you, Anthony Harrell, and Donald White would be at my house just about every day partying and just cutting up. Man I miss those days until we meet again family. 😭
