“ To David's children, it is with great sadness that I leave these words of condolences. I'm reminded of the many times your father shared stories of each of you. Each story filled with much love and pride. Remember always he lovingly carried each of you in his heart. To the family and friends, I mourn with you. David cared deeply about family and friends. His way of showing his love was to cook for everyone and just hangout together or talk on the phone for hours. To David, you already know, 4ever and always you have a place on my heart.
