The Obituary

Davion Marcus Walker

“To everything there is a season and a time to every purpose under the heaven:

A time to be born, and a time to die;

A time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted”...

Ecclesiastes 3:1-2

Davion, son of Dawn M. Green and the late Charles Walker, was born Thursday, October 10, 1991, in Harrisburg, Pennsylvania. In Harrisburg, on Sunday, February 10, 2013, God, in His Infinite Wisdom and Divine Love, called Davion into eternal life joining his father and other loved ones.

Davion attended William Penn Voc-Tech High School and was employed by Shari's Berries. Spending time with family, especially his daughter, music, playing basketball, baseball and rapping were among those things Davion enjoyed.

Davion leaves to share the grief of his sudden passing: his mother, Dawn M. Green; his daughter, Messiah Walker; three brothers, his twin Darrian Walker, Malik Walker and Troy Brooks; one sister, Dilaysia Green; his grandparents, Renee Napper, Leonard Napper and Catherine Talton; his girlfriend, Kaeshauna Banks; stepfather, John Smith, all of Harrisburg; as well as other family members and friends who are all saddened by Davion's unexpected passing.

Through Our Grief, We Know

God Is Still God!
