

Delores Moore

April 12, 1937 - June 15, 2022

Delores Moore, daughter of the late Odell Davis and the late Mary Ann Lyles, was born Monday, April 12, 1937, in Harrisburg, PA.

Delores graduated from the former William Penn High School. Her husband, Deacon Edgar Moore, and their children were near and dear to her heart. Lovingly known as “Mother Dear” by her family, Delores was a devoted homemaker as well as a devoted babysitter for over twenty years. She loved caring for children as if they were her own. She also cared for her sons’ friends, Felt, Banks, Pops, Stew, Clea and Bob Hume, to name a few, always making sure they had plenty to eat and even making their favorite foods.

Delores was united in Christian fellowship with Goodwin Memorial Baptist Church where she served with numerous ministries including the Nursery Ministry. She was the first in the Moore Family to join Goodwin. Her steadfast faith, love and devotion to her church led her children and her husband to join.

Among her pastimes were playing board games, cards, BINGO or just hanging out. Delores also loved spending time with her siblings, long phone conversations with family and friends, decorating for the holidays, especially Christmas, cooking, going out to eat at her favorite restaurant, Hoss’s, watching movies and listening to the music of her favorite artists, Al Green, R. Kelly, Lionel Richie and James Cleveland.

Delores and her husband supported the Harrisburg Cougars. She was a member of the Cougar Club which raised money for the student athletes. During track season, everyone looked forward to her fried chicken which she made for the State and District Track Meets.

On Wednesday, June 15, 2022, Delores transitioned from time to eternity joining her parents; her husband, Deacon Edgar Lee Moore Jr.; daughter, Valerie D. Moore-Patterson; and her sister, Mercedes Washington.

Delores leaves a legacy of love, faith and commitment to be honored and cherished by three sons, Keith Moore (Ruth), Stephen Moore (Bonita) and Lionel Moore, all of Harrisburg, PA; two daughters, Joyce Moore of Harrisburg, and Tanita Brockenbrough (David) of Dover, DE; four siblings, Anna Jackson, Melvin Davis (Betty), Thelma Stevens (Theo) and Calvin Lyles, all of Harrisburg; thirteen grandchildren, ten great-grandchildren, other family members and friends.

“ To the Family of Delores Moore:

On behalf of the Emperors Music Group, this is to express our deepest and heartfelt condolences for the passing of your dear mother and loved one. We join with you in the Celebration of her life! Delores was the devoted wife and better half of our friend, fellow Emperor and lead singer, Edgar Moore. We always viewed them from a musical point of view. Together, they were a duet and even parental figures because they were a married couple when Edgar joined the Emperors. Delores was always that foundational voice in Edgar's life whether it was music or some other of Edgar's various interests.

Theirs was a picture of true love and marriage that Songwriters like myself, and others, like to imagine and write about. Delores and Edgar were the real thing!!! As members of Goodwin Memorial; and God having already been the tie that binds in their relationship, all they needed was each other to get by. Truly, there was no mountain high enough; no valley low enough, no river wide enough, no wind, no rain that could keep them apart. She was a true helpmate with her husband Edgar that scripture speaks about. Like playing musical instruments and songs that come in different keys, God made people different also; and as life has its sharps, flats, and dissonants in most every life and relationship, Delores and Edgar maintained the necessary intervals to make things work. As wife, mother, grandmother, relative and friend, Delores wore many hats; and, if we might say, she wore them all well.

As we celebrate Delores' homegoing, I'm reminded, personally, of the last time being in her presence, together with Edgar and Keith at their home. We were rejoicing and thanking God for our time together with The Emperors. Might we all rejoice, today, together, in thanking God and Delores for her life well lived, and for her having touched all of our lives. We pray that the Moore Family, relatives and friends will be comforted in knowing that Delores left a rich legacy they could be proud of and to learn from.

Yours in Christian Love; and God's Servant in Christ,
