“ Not sure what memory I should put, because I have quite a few with you. Even though Courtney, and I are not married just yet, I still look at you as my mother in law. I remember when I was first to meet you, I was scared. I asked Courtney a couple of time if you were mean, if you would like me, and all kind of crazy stuff. But when I met you, you were sweet, and funny. Someone I grow to love. It's was hard seeing you pass I still cannot believe it. When I'm at the house I be waiting to hear you say, "there go them bad ass dog". But you always let Dutchess sit on your lap. Even though I didn't put any of my memories down, I will always remember them, because trust me. Courtney, and I will be laughing, and keeping you alive through our memories. Just know you will always be loved and most definitely missed.
