

Dennell V. Gann

June 11, 1964 - September 12, 2023

Dennell V. Gann, better known to family and friends as “Deno,” was born on Thursday, June 11, 1964, in Harrisburg, PA, to the late David J. Gann and Joan Gann.

Deno received his education in the Harrisburg School District and later attended Job Corp where he took up several trades. He attended Mount Zion Church of God In Christ, Harrisburg, PA, under Pastor Reginald Frison.

Since he was a young boy, Deno was fascinated with fire trucks. He often loved to watch YouTube videos of them. He enjoyed playing cards, having fun with family, and being the life of the party. Deno was also into his Word and loved to read the Bible. He was a die-hard 49ers fan. Deno loved to run errands with his sister (Mamie); he would say “Mame, come pick me up!” He was super excited to be a first-time grandfather and spend time with his daughter and grandson. Deno never hesitated to say what he was thinking and made you laugh while doing so.

On Tuesday, September 12, 2023, at fifty-nine years of age, Deno was unexpectedly called home to our Father God joining in eternal life his daughter, Dynashia Gann; his paternal grandparents, David and Julia Gann; his maternal grandparents, Norman and Edna Robinson; his eldest sister, Darlyn Gann; and his nephew, David C. Gann (Dutt).

Deno leaves cherished memories and his love to his daughter, Brianna Wright; his beloved grandson, Brayden Atkins; mother, Joan Gann; brothers, David C. Gann, Andre Gann (Dawn), Brian Gann; sisters, Joy Randolph (Patrick), Joan Gann (Maurice); his raised-as- sisters, Mary Haigh (Chris), Katina McIver; long-time companion, Theresa Stern; his nieces, nephews and a host of other family and friends.
