“Eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man, the things which God hath prepared for them that love him.” I Corinthians 2:9

Dessie Lee Mitchell was born Sunday, July 6, 1947, in Orangeburg, South Carolina, daughter of the late Herbert L. Jennings and Zula Johnson Jennings.

Dessie graduated from William Penn High School and, after many years of dedicated service, retired from AT&T. She was united in Christian fellowship with the Camp Curtin Memorial Mitchell United Methodist Church. Dessie’s special interests included cooking, dancing, traveling and her affiliation with American Legion Auxiliary, Post 733. Dessie lived life joyously, enthusiastically and with a beautiful smile. Always very fashionable, she loved people, people loved her, and she was always a joy to be around.

At the Colonial Park Care Center, Harrisburg, PA, on Wednesday, May 22, 2013, the angels came. Dessie triumphantly exchanged mortality for immortality passing from the labors of her earthly journey into her reward of life eternal.

Dessie’s life will be celebrated and many special memories will be cherished by her devoted family: husband, Richard Mitchell of Harrisburg; two sons, Darren L. Jennings of Harrisburg and Rashaad Bell of Owing Mills, Maryland; four grandsons, Isaiah and Isaac Coble and DaRon Jennings, all of Harrisburg, and Cameron Gabriel of Frederick, Maryland; as well as other relatives and friends.

In All Things, We Give Thanks! The Family

Because The Angels Came

No more grief or sorrow, No more suffering or pain.

Now there is everlasting peace,

Because the angels came.

When the sun rises tomorrow, please don't cry,

I answered the gentle knock at the door,

When the angels came.

God alone knows what's best, and He gently holds my hand,

Guiding me to a better place, Because the angels came.
