“ Omg I can't believe you're gone I just ran into you at the dollar tree and we talked for quite awhile, every time we spoke you had a loving story about your wonderful son and we both shared our most recent pictures of our babies and you kept telling me that u couldn't believe that I actually started all over again and had my daughter lol I loved our talks we shared lots of laughs with each other especially about our children and when we use to work together I will definitely miss you I just can't understand why you were taken so soon but I guess the lord needed u at home with him more than we needed u here. Rest in peace sweetheart and tell Shawn I said hello and that he is missed as well. Much love sweetheart and my prayers go out to you and your family especially your wonderful son. Till we meet again....

“ Dheresa I will miss you dearly, boo. We were work besties at United Concordia you were such a beautiful person always willing to help any and every one without any questions asked. Always kept a smile on your face. Gone way too soon. My heartfelt prayers to Daymarii. So many of us at United Concordia knew Daymarii without even physically meeting him as he was all she talked about.
