

Diane L. Staub

December 28, 1956 - February 29, 2012

Diane was born December 28, 1956, in Perry County, Pennsylvania.

At her home in Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, on Wednesday, February 29, 2012, while surrounded by her stepmother and those who loved and cared for her, God In His Infinite Wisdom and Divine Love called Diane into eternal life.

She was educated in the Harrisburg School District. As evidence of her acceptance of Jesus Christ as her Personal Savior, Diane was a member of Christian Insight Ministry. Diane found enjoyment through her love of arts and crafts, horses, checkers, watching her favorite movies, "Men In Black," "Independence Day," "Pursuit of Happyness," and she especially enjoyed eating her chocolate ice cream.

Diane is survived by her two children; her stepmother, Juanita Harris; sisters, Dell McGuffin, Lynn Jefferson, Minnie Stanback; brother, Daniel Warren; friend, Hadiyah Jefferson; a nephew, Brandon Stanback, all of Harrisburg; as well as other relatives and friends.
