“ My sister my sister, damn I'm gonna miss you, we had our ups and downs as siblings go through from time to time, we disagree on some things, but agree on most. Now that you have taken that journey to be with our mother, brothers Jeffrey, Richard and the rest of our loved ones who have taken that journey as well, we can finally agree on the fact that you no longer have to suffer. As tears pour down my face texting these thoughts all I have of us is our passed memories growing up together and I always failed to realize and took for granted that you were my one and only sister and never thought you were leaving us so soon and you will truly be missed and I will always love you I'm glad I had the chance to tell you that in the hospital when I was visiting you. God 🙏 bless my nieces Takiyah Washington, Jameia Washington and my nephew James Williams.

“ To the family of Delores Washington,

First I would like to send my sincere prayers and condolences to the children, Takiah, Jamiah, and James, her brothers, Raymond and David, and the rest of the entire family.

I had the privilege of meeting Delores in 1979 in Pittsburgh Job Corps. From there we became closely acquainted through her dear friend Tracy Burke. I am truly sorry that I cannot be there with you, but I send my deepest sincere prayers, that God will comfort each and everyone of you.

Blessings, and Peace Be unto you 🕊️ 🌹

To the Washington family and friends.

Her Journey,

Don't think of Dolores as gone away, her journey's just begun, life holds so many facets, this earth is only one.

Just think of her as resting from the sorrow and the tears, in a place of warmth and comfort, where there are no days and years.

Think how she must be wishing that we could know today, how nothing but our sadness can really pass away.

And think of her as living in the hearts of those she touched, for nothing loved is ever lost, and Dolores was loved so much. (Memorial Card Shop)

Rest in Heavenly Peace, Dolores.

I will always remember how much fun we had on the way to work.. We cut up so bad, in a good way. Love you girl, Roz McLamb
