

Mr. Donald Nathaniel Green, Sr.

April 6, 1927 - May 9, 2016

~~~~~

“For death begins with life’s first breath,

Donald Nathaniel Green Sr., affectionately known as “Greenie” to his friends and “Iggie” to his mom and dad, was born in Brooklyn, New York, on Wednesday, April 6, 1927, to the late Samuel Green and the late Corina Huggins-Green.

Donald eventually left New York and settled in Baltimore, Maryland, where he met and married Maggie Davenport. Donald later joined the United States Air Force where he served his country twenty-eight years during the Korean War and World War II before his retirement.

Donald and Maggie later settled in Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, where Donald began working for the Postal Service for several years. They later purchased a small grocery store on the Hill Section of Harrisburg known as “Green’s Grocery.” This corner grocery store served the needs of many in the neighborhood and would often remain open after business hours to meet the needs of families.

Donald enjoyed fishing, cooking, watching boxing and old-western movies.

In Harrisburg, on Monday, May 9, 2016, at eighty-nine years of age, Donald departed this life joining in eternal life his parents, his wife, Maggie Ruth Davenport-Green, his brother, Samuel Green Jr., and his sister, Francis Green-Patterson.

Donald leaves to share and cherish many special memories, his sons, Cyril D. Green of Coney Island, New York, Donald N. Green Jr. of Harrisburg; his daughter, Denise R. Green of Goldsboro, North Carolina; seven grandchildren, Julius Green, Loreal Dungee, Natalya Dungee, Terrell Lance, Mike, Jamel and Arianna Danzey; great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

Lovingly and Respectfully Submitted, The Family

His life will be celebrated at 12 Noon, Friday, May 13, 2016, at Wallace Funeral Directors with viewing/visitation 11 a.m.-12 p.m. Interment will be 9:30 a.m., Monday May 16, 2016, at Indiantown Gap National Cemetery.
